3. REMUNERATION COMPONENTS

3.1 Fixed Remuneration for Executive Directors and senior management

3.1.1. The fixed salary is determined according to:

- The scope of the duty and responsibilities;
- The conditions and experiences required;
- The ethical values, internal balances and strategic targets of the Company;
- The corporate and individual performance;
- Current market rate within the industry and in comparable companies; and
- The scale and complexity of both the business and the role.

Executive Directors are entitled to receive those benefits available to the Company. The said benefits include group insurance coverage, medical benefits, motor vehicle related benefits and annual leave. Executive Directors may receive other benefits that are considered to be appropriate in terms of the individual's role, for example annual leave passage and security services.

3.2 Bonus

The bonus in the case of Executives Directors and senior management is designed to reward outstanding performance. The bonus is granted to the Executive Directors' and senior management's performance against annual measures and targets set at the start of the year as well as Group results. A discretionary assessment is made to ensure that all factors which include measurable and qualitative criteria are considered.

3.3 Fixed fee for Non-Executive Directors

3.3.1. The fixed fee is determined according to:

- On par with the rest of the market;
- Reflect the qualifications and contribution required in view of the Group's complexity;
- The extent of the duty and responsibilities
- The number of Board meetings; and
- The corporate and individual performance.

3.4 Other Benefits and Allowances

The benefit and allowances which should be decided by the Board as a whole include:

3.4.1. Chairman's allowance;

3.4.2. Meeting allowance;

3.4.3. Expenses incurred in the course of their duties as Directors; and

3.4.4. Benefit in kind such as motor vehicle, petrol, driver, medical benefits, use of mobile phone and accommodation.

DIRECTORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT'S REMUNERATION POLICY

4. REMUNERATION PROCEDURES

- (a) The RC reviews and approves the annual salaries, incentive arrangements, service arrangements and other employment conditions for the Executive Directors and senior management.
- (b) Senior Management reports to the Executive Directors who are evaluated annually premised on annual measurements and targets set. Thereafter, the Executive Directors recommend the remuneration of Senior Management to the RC for consideration and subsequent recommendation to the Board for approval.
- (c) The determination of the remuneration for Non-Executive Directors is a matter for the Board as a whole. The Executive Directors are not present when matters affecting their own remuneration arrangements are considered.
- (d) The policy of the RC is in line with the Group's overall practice on compensation and benefits, which is to reward employees competitively, taking into account performance, market comparisons and competitive pressures in the industry. Whilst not seeking to maintain a strict market position, it takes into account comparable roles in similar organisations.

5. PERIODIC REVIEW AND DISCLOSURE

- (a) The RC should conduct a review on an annual basis of the criteria to be used in recommending the remuneration packages of the Directors and senior management. The RC should promptly communicate the new changes or amendments of the criteria to the Board and individual Directors.
- (b) The Board should disclose this policy in the Company's website.
