FRONTKEN CORPORATION BERHAD AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

1. Introduction

Frontken Corporation Berhad and its subsidiaries ("FCB" or the "Group") is committed to conducting the Group's business lawfully and ethically in all the countries where the businesses are located.

The Group has established this Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy ("Policy") which sets out its expectations for internal and external parties working for and on behalf of the Group in preventing bribery or corrupt practises in relation to the Group's businesses.

This Policy, which is revised in tandem with changes to regulatory requirements locally and abroad, is approved by the Board of Directors of FCB (the "Board"). The Policy shall be read together with the Group's other internal policies/procedures/guidelines/manual including but not limited to FCB Group's Code of Conduct and Whistleblowing Policy.

In the event of any conflicts between this Policy and applicable laws, the law shall prevail.

2. Objective

This Policy sets out the Group's position on bribery in all its forms and matters of corruption that might confront the Group in its day to day operations.

3. Scope

This Policy is generally applicable to the Directors of FCB Group; employees of the Group; and suppliers, consultants, contractors, agents, advisors, and any person who or institution which performs services for or on behalf of the Group (collectively, the "Vendors"), unless otherwise stated in the specific associated policies referred to in this Policy.

4. What is Bribery?

"Bribery" refers to the act of corruptly giving, agreeing to give, authorising, promising, offering, soliciting, receiving, or agreeing to receive any gratification. Gratification can take various forms, including, but not limited to, monetary, non-monetary, services, favours, or any form of benefit or advantage, more specifically defined as follows:

- A gratification that is given or received with a corrupt intent, either as an inducement to gain or provide an undue advantage or reward for having gained or provided an undue advantage is considered a bribe;
- A gratification that is given or received with the corrupt intent to influence the intended recipient's judgement, views, or conduct, is considered a bribe; and
- A gratification that is given or received with a corrupt intent, including to induce or reward the improper performance of a party, or to obtain or retain business advantage, is considered a bribe.

The Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 ("MACC Act 2009") prohibits a person or a commercial organisation from giving or receiving bribes, including via agents or associates. Contravention of the law may result in a fine of not less than 10 times the sum or value of gratification or RM1 million, whichever is higher, and/or its officers concerned, imprisonment for a term not exceeding 20 years [Refer to Section 16, Section 17, and Section 17A of the MACC Act 2009].

5. Our Group's Anti-Bribery and Corruption Stance

The Group's anti-bribery and corruption stance is further explained as follows:

- I. All forms of bribery and corruption are prohibited. The Group upholds a zero tolerance approach.
- II. The Group shall not pay to, or receive bribes from, anyone for any purpose;
- III. The Group shall uphold this anti-bribery and corruption stance across the Group's business and expects the same from stakeholders, internal and external to the Group's business, extending to all the Group's business dealings and activities;
- IV. The Directors, Management and staff of the Group as well as Vendors working for and on behalf of the Group shall adhere to and observe the Group's anti-bribery and corruption stance and relevant provisions of this Policy;
- V. In a situation where a Director, employee or Vendor is pressured to pay a facilitation payment to protect his/her physical safety or freedom, he/she shall prioritise his/her safety or freedom. If a facilitation payment is made in such a situation, the payment shall be immediately reported to the Group's Chairman, or the designated independent director, as the case may be.
- VI. The Board treats any violation of this Policy seriously and shall undertake necessary actions, including, but are not limited to, review of employment or appointment, disciplinary actions, dismissal, termination of existing contract/agreement, and reporting to the authorities, consistent with the relevant laws and regulations.

7. Gifts, Entertainment, Hospitality and Travel

While the giving or receiving of gifts, entertainment, hospitality and travel are not prohibited, they must not be made with the intention, to improperly influence any business-related decisions or outcome. Gifts, entertainment, hospitality or travel shall only be given if (1) it seeks to improve the image of the Group; (2) better present products and services; or (3) establishes cordial relations. Gift, entertainment, hospitality or travel which may improperly influence any business-related decisions or outcome is construed as a bribe.

Hence, Directors and employees of the Group as well as Vendors and business associates must avoid giving or receiving gifts, entertainment, hospitality or travel which may be construed as a bribe. The Group's business dealings, such as purchase orders, sales, and contracts, shall be conducted based on business merits, such as price competitiveness, quality of goods and services, and reliable track records.

Some examples of acceptable gifts, entertainment, hospitality and travel are as follows:

- I. token gifts received/presented at business events, seminars, meetings, conferences or during festive occasions;
- II. refreshment or meals during meetings, seminars or conferences;
- III. meals for business purposes; and
- IV. reasonable travel arrangement and/or accommodation provided/received for business purposes provided always that the value of such gifts, entertainment, hospitality and travel shall not exceed RM500. If the amount equivalents or exceeds RM500, it shall be considered and approved by either the Chairman of the Group and/or any member of the Audit Committee on a case by case basis and on its merits.

8. Facilitation Payments

Facilitation payments shall mean unofficial and improper payments or benefits, such as gifts, entertainment, hospitality or travel, provided to secure or expedite a routine or necessary action (such as the issuance of permits, licences, processing visas or work permits etc) to which the Group is legally entitled.

Directors of the Company, employees of the Group, Vendors and Business Associates are prohibited from, giving or receiving facilitation payments.

9. Donations and Sponsorships

Donations and sponsorships made by the Group, shall not be made with the intention to influence any business-related decisions or outcome.

All donations and sponsorships shall be authorised, processed, and recorded properly.

10. Political Contributions

Subject to any prevailing law that govern political contribution, the Group may make contribution to political parties or candidates. All political contributions require approval from the Chairman of the Group.

11. Offer of Business Incentives

The Group only provide rebates, discounts, commissions, or other incentives on bona fide business transactions and which are not contradictory with prevailing laws and regulations on anti-bribery and corruption.

12. Business Dealings with Integrity

The Group, in selecting its Directors, employees, Vendors and Business Associates, places great emphasis on business ethics and integrity. Parties intending to conduct business with the Group are expected to adhere to this Policy.

Vendors and Business Associates of the Group are strongly encouraged to have in place adequate procedures to prevent bribery or corruption activities in doing business, especially when performing work or service for or on behalf of the Group.

For business arrangement or conduct of business activity which carries a higher bribery or corruption risk, as assessed and determined by the Group from time to time, the Group shall require the Vendor or Business Associate involved to have in place adequate procedures, including policies and procedures, to prevent bribery or corruption activities. For the same reason, the Group may retain the right to audit a Vendor or Business Associate as a condition for transacting with the Group.

13. Records

It is important that proper and complete records and documentation of all transactions made by the Group with its Vendors and Business Associates be maintained as these serve as evidence that the transactions made were bona fide, and were not made with a corrupt or unethical intent.

All records, including work records, supply records, bank statements, accounts, receipts, invoices and other supporting documentation, shall be prepared and maintained by the Group with accuracy and completeness. These records shall be retained for at least seven (7) years following the period to which they relate.

14. Risk Assessment

The Group shall conduct regular risk assessment to identify and evaluate specific risks on bribery and corruption inherent in or potentially affecting the Group's business. Such risks identified shall be reported to the Audit Committee, including the mitigating measures to remediate the risks to an acceptable level.

15. Compliance support and reporting of violation

Compliance with this Policy by Directors of the Company, employees of the Group, Vendors and Business Associates are mandatory. Concerns or queries pertaining to compliance with this Policy may be raised to the respective business unit head or Head Office.

Any person, including the general public, who knows of, or suspects, a violation of this Policy shall report their concerns through the whistleblowing mechanism set out under the Whistleblowing Policy, which is made available on the Company's website at www.frontken.com.

No individual shall be discriminated against or suffer any sort of retaliation for raising genuine concerns or reporting in good faith on violations or suspected violations of this Policy. All reports shall be treated confidentially.

16. Awareness, communication and training

The Group conducts awareness programmes for all business units to refresh awareness of anti-bribery and anti-corruption measures, and to continuously promulgate integrity and ethics. All business units should appropriately communicate to all their personnel and business associates the Policy and to ensure adherence to this Policy.

17. Monitoring, review and revision of Policy

The Group will monitor the effectiveness and the review of the implementation of this Policy. Any improvements identified will be incorporated as soon as possible.

This Policy which is approved by the Board shall be reviewed from time to time, as and when required or necessary, taking into consideration changes in the laws and regulatory requirements and any improvement opportunities noted from assurance providers.

This Policy was adopted by the Board of Directors on 3 November 2020.
