Chong Loong Men Joins NexG As Executive Director

NexG Bhd has appointed Datuk Chong Loong Men as its executive director, effective November 18, following formal approval by the company's board of directors.

KUALA LUMPUR: NexG Bhd has appointed Datuk Chong Loong Men as its executive director, effective November 18, following formal approval by the company's board of directors.

In a statement, NexG said the appointment reflects the company's commitment to reinforcing governance, enhancing organisational stability, and strengthening leadership as it progresses into a critical phase of national digital identity and security implementation.

NexG added that the board's decision to appoint Chong underscores its focus on long-term institutional stability and robust governance practices.

His addition to the leadership team further aligns NexG with its mission to deliver secure, trusted, and future-ready digital infrastructure for Malaysia.

Chong brings a wealth of regulatory, legal, and corporate experience to NexG, having previously served as a Deputy Public Prosecutor at the Attorney-General's Chambers (AGC) and as an officer at the Securities Commission Malaysia (SC).

He has also developed extensive legal practice in corporate, regulatory, and commercial matters, complemented by board experience across multiple public-listed companies.

NexG said his blend of regulatory insight and boardroom leadership positions him as a valuable asset to the company's strategic growth.

Chong's expertise is also expected to support regulatory compliance, stakeholder confidence, and the execution of key national projects.

NexG is a provider of next-generation digital infrastructure and security solutions, delivering trusted, scalable platforms to government, enterprise, and national digital transformation initiatives.
