Code of Conduct

- Notify your department head (HOD) or the Board immediately if you suspect any irregularities

The Company will take disciplinary action against any personnel who fails to act in accordance with applicable statutory laws, Company Policies and Procedures and this Code.

In the performance of his or her duties, each Officer must comply with the letter and spirit of the following codes:

i) Human Rights

The Company supports and respects human rights. The Company treats officers with dignity and respect in the workplace, provides equal employment opportunities, creates a safe and harmonious work environment, and will not engage in any form of discrimination. Officers should respect the personal dignity, privacy and rights of each individual you interact with during the course of work and shall not in any way cause or contribute to the violation or circumvention of human rights.

ii) Health And Safety

The Company provides a work environment that is safe, secure and free of danger, harassment, intimidation, threats and violence. The Company takes appropriate precautions to prevent injuries or adverse working conditions for each and every officer. It is the responsibility of each and every officer to adhere to the prescribed safety rules and acts as well as to raise any concerns which may represent a potential threat to health and safety. Officers are responsible for reporting injuries and unsafe work practices or conditions as soon as they being discovered or become known.

iii) Environment

The Company conducts operations in a manner that safeguards health, protects the environment and conserves valuable materials. The Company is committed to protecting the environment by minimizing and mitigating environmental impacts throughout the life cycle of operations. Officers should contribute to minimizing the use of finite resources, including energy, water and raw materials. Officers should minimize harmful emissions to environment, including waste, air emissions and discharges to water.

iv) Gifts And Business Courtesies

Officers must exercise caution in relation to offering or accepting gifts and business courtesies. Officers should not accept gifts or other form of remuneration if there is reason to believe that its purpose is to improperly influence business decisions.

Code of Conduct

v) Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

The Company adopt zero-tolerance approach towards all forms of bribery and corruption and undertake to comply with all the relevant anti-corruption laws in all the jurisdictions the Company operates in. Officers shall never offer, give, solicit or accept bribes or any other improper payment in order to achieve business or personal advantages for themselves or other persons, or engage in any transaction that can be construed as having contravened the anti-corruption laws.

Officers shall be cognisant of the fact that bribers may be in any form, monetary or otherwise including but are not limited to unauthorised remuneration such as referral fee, commission or other similar compensation, material goods, services, gifts, business amenities, premiums or discounts of an inappropriate value or of an unreasonable level or that are not generally offered to others or that are prohibited by law or may reasonably be viewed as having crossed the boundaries of ethical and lawful business practice.

Prior to giving or accepting any business amenity or other gifts (in whether form or value), Officers shall assess the appropriateness of their actions by assessing if the action could influence or could reasonably give the appearances of influencing the business relationship of the Group with that organisation or individual or any business decision arising out of that business relationship.

vi) Company Records And Internal Controls

The Company's records must be prepared accurately and honestly, both by accountants who prepare financial statements and by officers who contribute to the creation of business records, for example, by submitting expense records, time sheets, order and invoice records. The Company takes obligation to maintain business records for operational, legal, financial, historical and other purposes seriously and takes appropriate steps to ensure that the content, context and structure of the records are reliable and authentic.

Reliable internal controls are critical for proper, complete and accurate accounting and financial reporting. Officers must understand the internal controls relevant to their positions and comply with the policies and procedures related to those controls to ensuring that effective and reliable business processes are in place.

Code of Conduct

i) Company Assets

The Company's properties and assets should be managed and safeguarded in a manner which protects their values. Officers are accountable both for safeguarding all assets entrusted to them, including our information resources, records, materials, facilities and equipment under your care or control, from loss, theft, waste, misappropriation or infringement and for using the assets to advance the interests of the Company. All officers have an affirmative duty to immediately report the theft, loss or misappropriation of any Company assets, including financial assets, physical assets, information assets and electronic assets to the management as stipulated under Violations of Code of Conduct below.

ii) Exclusive Service

The Company expects each and every officer to give their fullest attention, dedication and efforts to their duties and the Company. Officers must avoid any personal, financial or other interest which may be in conflict with their duties and responsibilities to the Company. In this respect, an officer is not permitted to be gainfully employed by any other organization, company or business concern other than the Company without prior written consent of the Managing Director.

iii) Integrity And Professionalism

Officers should remember that they are a reflection on the Company and are constantly being judged and otherwise appraised by everyone they come in contact with. All officers should conduct themselves with the highest degree of integrity and professionalism in the workplace or any other location while on Company's business.

iv) Confidential Information

All information obtained in the course of engagement and/or employment with the Company shall be deemed to be strictly confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third party. This measure applies to all officers both during and after the service with the Company.

Except with the permission of the Company, an officer shall not make any unauthorized public statement, circulate, divulge or communicate with any customer, member of the public, media or government or statutory bodies on the policies or decision of the Company on any issue, or any other information or details in respect of the Company's business. This applies to disclosures by any medium, including the internet, especially via social media sites (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, YouTube), internet message boards and/or blogs. An officer must take precautionary steps to prevent the unauthorised disclosure of proprietary or confidential information, including protecting and securing documents containing this information.

BINASAT COMMUNICATIONS BERHAD
Code of Conduct

Personal records and remuneration including the officer's own remuneration are classified as Private and Confidential information and shall not be divulged.

v) Compliance Obligations

Officers are responsible for knowing and complying with the requirements applicable to their work activities, including those described in Rules of Conduct and Disciplinary Procedure in the Employee Handbook and those described in the Company's guidance documents (Company's standards, policies and procedures and manuals).

vi) Anti-Money Laundering

Money laundering is the process of concealing, converting and transferring proceeds from unlawful activities to a legitimate source of income or asset. Money laundering is an offence under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2001 in Malaysia.

Officers shall be aware of the applicable anti-money laundering laws and shall seek to ensure that they are appropriately and adequately informed of developments in the laws relating to this area in order to actively pursue the prevention of money laundering and any activity that facilitates money laundering or the funding of terrorist or criminal activities. Officers are expected to be mindful of the risk of the Company's business being used for money laundering activities and to raise any suspicious transactions to their immediate superior and the Board to undertake further investigation.

vii) Insider Dealing

No Officers shall disclose non-public price sensitive information to any person (including family members) where such information may be used by such person to his or her profit by trading or in recommending or advising others to trade in any securities of company.

In the context of Malaysia Law, insider trading is an offence defined under the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007. The laws of other country on insider trading may be applicable in the context of inside information concerning company listed outside Malaysia.

Code of Conduct

E. COMMUNICATION AND COMPLIANCE

The Company and the Board should ensure this Code is being communicated to all levels of officers through staff handbook, notice board, intranet, or corporate website. The Company should include the briefing of this Code to new officers in the induction programme.

The Board should ensure this Code permeates throughout the Company and is complied by all levels of officers.

F. VIOLATIONS OF CODE OF CONDUCT

The Company's officer should report to supervisors, managers, HODs or Head of Human Resource about the known or suspected illegal or unethical behaviour. The Company's Executive Directors and senior management shall promptly report any known or suspected violations of this Code to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Management Committee. All officers shall refer to and adhere to the Whistleblowing Policies and Procedures.

G. NON-RETALIATION

The Company makes every effort to maintain the confidentiality of any individual who reports concerns and possible misconduct. Officers who retaliate or encourage others to do so will be subjected to disciplinary actions, up to and including termination of employment or engagement. The Company does not tolerate any form of retaliation against anyone who makes a report in good faith.

H. INVESTIGATIONS

The Company shall investigate reported concerns promptly and confidentially with the highest level of professionalism and transparency. All internal investigations and audits are conducted impartially and without predetermined conclusions. Each and every officer shall be expected to cooperate fully with audits, investigations and any corrective action plans, which may include areas for continued monitoring and assessment.

Where external investigations are required, every officer shall appropriately respond to, cooperate and shall not interfere with, any lawful government inquiry, audit or investigation.

I. PERIODIC REVIEW

The Board and senior management of the Company will periodically review the Code on an annual basis and communicate the new changes to all levels of officers.

This Code of Conduct was first adopted by the Board on 14 June 2017 and was reviewed and approved by the Board on 20 October 2020.
