1.3 MESSAGE FROM SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE

DEAR STAKEHOLDERS,

For the last two decades, Frontken Group (the “Group”) built technology and provided services that enable our customers to be more sustainable and do more for our environment, community and society. We integrate our technology, practices, partnerships, and processes around a single mission - to build sustainability through actionable technology; and make more positive impact towards the environment and society together with our customers, employees, and stakeholders. We have been committed to health, safety, environmental and corporate responsibility, and sustainability development. We are focused on providing our customers around the world with products, services and technologies that help to improve and achieve the sustainable Environment, Society, Business Practices and make an explicit and positive contribution to the challenges of the Sustainable Development Goals today.

The year 2022 (“FY2022”) was a challenging year, there had been various significant events over the past two years that had rapidly evolved into a highly complex and uncertain situation; the world has witnessed the resilience and fragility of our global economic, environmental, social and governance systems. The whole world had gone through a worldwide pandemic, supply chain disruptions, a prolonged war, different natural disasters and many other political tensions and high inflation challenges. We are now adjusting with these new realities created by these challenges that evolved into major concerns about climate change, environment protection, peace, prosperity, and economic recovery. The global business community need serious industrial transformation, collaboration, and adjustment to respond with better innovation, more responsible technology, more responsible business operations, mitigating carbon emissions and adopting sustainable energy; compliance with laws and regulations, high ethical standards; and integrated sustainability development.

In Frontken Group, we continue to navigate through our own transformation, redesigning and improving our business operation and focusing our innovation in areas where our technologies, processes, systems, and capabilities can make a difference to solve and accelerate the changes that are required. We recognize the unique and evolving characteristics of our stakeholders, customers, and supply chains to address climate change risks, clean water risks, circular economy, better green innovation, and sustainable green production. We integrated our transformation journey with our sustainability development journey. We believe the biggest impact we can make is by working with our stakeholders, including customers, partners, and suppliers, to develop sustainable innovations and green production that address the worlds’ challenges and value chains efficiency.

At the fiscal year 2022 meetings of the Sustainability Committee, the members continue to discuss and update our specific business materiality assessment and enterprise risk management (ERM) processes, and internal control systems to fine tune our sustainability development priorities and management strategies to the changing risk situation and challenges facing our customers and stakeholders. The members also explored the possibilities of incorporating the concept of circular economy principles into our business models considering life cycle impacts in the markets we serve. The Group aims to achieve the following:

- (a) By 2050, we will neutralize 100% of our greenhouse gas emissions to achieve Environmental Vision 2050.

- (b) By 2050, we will generate 100% of our innovation portfolio to significantly solve sustainability challenges and create value for our customers and stakeholders.
- (c) By 2050, we will create 100% of our products and processes with reference to sustainability development criteria, green chemistry and green production, circular economy principles with minimum climate impact.

"Frontken Group has been in the business for more than 20 years, using advanced innovative technology to develop sustainable products and services that make critical parts last longer, perform better and look beautiful and recyclable over numerous critical production processes in many domain industries."

307,623 tons of DI-Water recycling since 2018; and an accumulative savings of 381,196 kg of waste recycling since 2018.

In addition, the committee evaluated and identified risks and opportunities related to the environment including climate change following the various references and standards including Climate-related Financial Disclosures recommendations, and discussed the direction of the Company's environmental initiatives, such as waste recovery and recycling based on these standards and efforts toward a circular economy. We published a separate report on this Climate Change Challenges.

Our key accomplishments in 2022 include

- (a) strengthen innovation platform and increased innovation value creation;
- (b) more updated greener products and production process and specialized capabilities;
- (c) greener and safer regulatory chemical usage and management policy;
- (d) increased transparency, reduced risk, and increased actions linked to solving sustainability challenges, including climate change and pollution control.

We recognize the opportunity to transform and mitigate carbon emissions and adopt sustainable energy; we have invested and transited to lower greenhouse gas designs for our production and operations with renewable energy and related systems; and as of 2018 to 2022 we have adopted for the equivalent of 2,277,595 KW of electricity using solar energy for our operations; and an accumulative savings of

The Group has continuously explored different ways to grow our business while undertaking challenges associated with the reduction of greenhouse gas emissions and improving our positive impact towards the environment and society. Through the development of our technology, products and services that contribute to environmental protection and energy conservation and the mitigation of global warming, we aim to reduce the world's greenhouse gas emissions while further developing our businesses. We will focus on disclosing environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) information, including climate change and pollution control.

In FY2022, we continue to strengthen the Group’s commitments to various aspects of sustainability development, especially on the governance, health and safety of our employees, environmental sustainability and emissions and climate changes, and pollution control, and sustainable supply chain.

Our sustainability report covers our accomplishments in FY2022 during which time we took important steps to strengthen and integrate our sustainability vision, which is key to the long-term sustainable growth, development, and profitability of the Group. We have dedicated additional resources to fully control, digitize and integrate our sustainability initiatives. These initiatives are aimed to recognize opportunities for profitability, continuous improvement, build enterprise value, preserve business integrity, and protects our reputation.

At the Group level, we continuously develop advanced technology to help our customers create sustainable products and services that make their critical parts last longer, perform better and look beautiful and recyclable in their critical processes. In short, we research, develop, and build unique advanced technology and capabilities to support and extend the critical processes for our customers’ businesses. Our technology helps customers to (a) PROTECT the surfaces of their critical parts used in everyday production; (b) PRESERVE their critical parts materials, so that they last longer in everyday production; (c) PROVIDE for a sustainable future via recycling, repairing, re-engineering, refurbishment, and re-coating, etc.

The Group continuously develop business opportunities in alignment with our Sustainable Development Goals that are most relevant for the Group by re-engineering more shared values from fewer resources and turning societal concerns and environmental challenges into our product and services innovations for our global customers. We believe in delivering to both our stakeholders and social values for the long-term growth by building excellent corporate governance that will contribute positively to society and the environment.

The Group has continuously spent considerable time and resources in shifting our business models towards becoming more sustainable and more digital and more automated. We have also been successful in identifying new opportunities, as evidenced by our investments in digitization of advanced production system, expanding our production capacity, and the re-engineering of our water usage and conservation systems, renewable energy system as well as our waste treatment and discharge systems, which have become the leader in terms of semiconductor parts processing support technology as well as in environmental sustainability.

The Group has also continuously engaged our stakeholders on the risk management and materiality assessment of our business; including the key trends and topics that are critical to the continual success of our business, such as reducing emissions to the environment, reducing energy use and waste and improving safety and productivity, creating an inclusive social platform and good corporate governance, business continuity plan, etc. We have always and will continue to constantly review such risks as important opportunities to strengthen our risk management and create long-term value and sustainable growth for the Group. The assessment and improvement of our operational sustainability have been integrated as part of the Group's strategic formulation.

Based on the key issues we identified, we have laid out a set of strategies and some medium-term and long-term goals. In the long-term vision, we aim to benchmark our sustainability development with the GRI Framework and United Nations Sustainable Development Goals; Responsible Business Alliance Framework ("RBA"); Bursa Malaysia FTSE Russell ESG Model Framework; and by continuing to make efforts in the economic and ESG dimensions of our business and make contribution towards resolving environmental and social issues.

The Board will continue to provide oversight with the support of the Sustainability Management Committee and Risk Management Committee where the Environment, Social and Governance etc are reviewed and implemented.

Moving forward, one of the key priorities will be the health and safety of our employees, their families, and of the employees working for our customers and our business partners. In FY2022, the Group continued to improve and strengthen and focus on the Seven "Core Areas for Action on Sustainability". These seven dimensions of sustainability development are:

- (a) Responsible management;
- (b) Responsible innovation and service;
- (c) Responsible green production;
- (d) Responsible workplace;
- (e) Responsible inclusion and diversity;

1.3.1.3 RESPONSIBLE GREEN PRODUCTION

The Group has continued to improve its green production method through its research and development to meet the operational challenges that global warming may bring by making progress through innovation. In FY2022, we have built an advanced new production plant in Taiwan and an advanced production line in Singapore. Our advanced production capacity has increased as the chip processes continue to grow more complex. Although we have an additional increased in advanced production capability, however, though our efforts, the unit production average power usage was only slightly increased to 10.17 kWh (FY2021 = 9.22 kWh) per part produced; and the unit production average water usage was also slightly increased to 0.13 (FY2020 = 0.11) cubic metre per part; this is due to (a) a change and optimization in our product and processes mixed and (b) the qualification stage of the new plant in Taiwan and new production line in Singapore; however, the unit production average waste produced was maintained at 0.4 kg (FY2021= 0.4 kg) per part. Moving forward, these increases will be offset by the continuous increase expansion in our renewable energy and water recycling system and future innovations.

To assess the environmental impact of the Group's business activities, including its value chain, the Group implemented and monitored Scopes 1, 2, and 3 of the greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions. The calculation is based on the GHG Protocol, which is the most widely used international accounting and reporting tool. We have identified Scope 2 electricity consumption as having the greatest potential impact on achieving our stated energy and emissions targets. Most of our energy use is associated with our production. Optimizing energy efficiency in our operations is a key component of the Group's overall sustainability strategy.

We are committed to continuing to cut energy usage to lower our utility costs and reduce our environmental footprint. We are committed to doing our part to achieve a low-carbon future. We have already boosted the share of renewable power in our energy mix. Our sources of renewable energy include on-site generation: renewable power generated by renewable energy sources (i.e., solar).

We continue to enjoy savings from our scrubber overhaul and replacement and implemented energy saving lighting system projects

- (a) We continue to improve on the optimization of energy conservation for our scrubbers, which are our single biggest user of electricity. It is important that our scrubbers operate in the most efficient manner. We achieve this through our scrubber overhaul and replacement program.
- (b) We also continue to explore the use of energy conservation Performance Enhancement Lighting Management System, allowing lighting levels to be automatically managed based on motion detection.
- (c) We continue to enhance the energy conservation initiative by using energy savings lighting at our offices.
- (d) We continue to implement and expand renewable power in our energy mix. In both our Taiwan plant and Singapore Plant, we installed solar photovoltaic systems on the roof of the plant to generate electricity and achieve an average monthly power generation of up to 935,661 kWh; and we accumulatively generated approximately 2,277,595 KW of green power since 2018.

- (e) We continue to improve our energy conservation transformation of the chiller system, office air conditioning system, dust-collecting and exhaust system and lighting system, including the adoption of frequency conversion technology, the installation of flow monitoring and control system and the replacement of energy-saving lightings. To that end, we achieved considerable good results. Consequently, we have continued to save more than 935,661 kWh of electricity using solar energy every year since the implementation of these projects.

1.3.1.4 RESPONSIBLE WORKPLACE

The Group continued to improve and implement Work Safety and Health Hazard Prevention Programs in the workplace which include: conducting a hazard assessment; identifying a combination of measures that limit safety and Health hazard in the workplace; adopting measures to ensure that workers protected; and implemented protections and implemented the “new normal” work practices, including a diverse working approaches in order to improve productivity and allow employees to use their abilities to the utmost. In addition, we are also continuously implementing job redesign, performance management, and other systems to expand the role of, expectations for, and output of each employee’s roles and responsibilities, and accelerate the pivot to job-based and skill-based human capital management.

We see it as our responsibility to provide a safe and injury-free working environment which is set out in our Health, Safety and Environment policy statement. This policy supports the Workplace Safety and Health (“WSH”) regulations in most of the jurisdictions we operate in. We actively promote awareness of workplace occupational health and safety. We aim to elevate the safety standards for our stakeholders through our WSH work plan. We expand our WSH measures such as training and education, fire safety improvements as well as onsite safety inspections.

We believe that all workplace injuries are preventable, and our ultimate goal is to achieve zero injuries through continued investment in and focus on our core safety programs and injury reduction initiatives. To raise employee’s awareness, we institute a WSH mandatory training program for our operation employees to equip them with the knowledge (such as understanding safety responsibilities and covering materials needed for specific jobs – electrical safety, ergonomics, control of hazardous materials and chemical safety) so that they may comply with the same in the performance of their assigned roles.

We are 100% compliance with all regulatory requirements relevant and applicable to the health and safety performance of our operations and processes. We have a health and safety system to identify and evaluate health and safety hazards and risks on work tasks, work areas, equipment, and operations, and to identify the controls needed to prevent or minimize worker exposure to health and safety risks. We continuously implement regular internal audits and third-party audits to review and qualify our safety system. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Environment, Safety and Health (“ESH”) and Sustainability team developed detailed Health and Safety Protocols for all our sites and operations and to support our employees.

1.3.1.7 RESPONSIBLE CLIMATE CHANGE

The climate change challenges we face today are global threat facing humanity, however the answers involve a superhuman level of understanding, sacrifice and execution. CO2 is a global pollutant that cannot be locally contained in any location. And is now a reality. The consequences of a global indecision will eventually lead to a very dangerous heat levels, drought, floods and extreme hardship for millions of people all around the world. The climate change has a very extensive disastrous effects on our environment, including but not limited to increasing frequency and intensity of many extreme weather effects, flooding, famine, to changing sea temperature, ocean acidity, and ultimately increase in sea level.

Frontken Group are responding the climate change with high urgency and commitment. We approach our climate change work by focusing on the fundamentals of climate change materiality assessment; including what are the critical issues and where are the greatest impact. This materiality assessment provides a framework for our work across our strategic pillars of climate resilience, resources resilience, and production resilience — and record how we can best execute and achieve the change and reduce our environmental footprint.

Frontken Group will in accordance with our environmental policy and measures committed to:

- (a) Reduce the energy used in our operations; including improved energy efficiency in our buildings, facilities, equipment and tooling;
- (b) Reduce water impacts in the manufacturing of our operations, including the use of our services, and operation of all our facilities;
- (c) Implement alternative or renewable energy technologies such as solar panels, where practical to provide additional sustainable energy for our facilities;
- (d) Engage with all the stakeholders including the supply chain to combat climate change;
- (e) Work with suppliers/partners to reduce the carbon embedded in all consumables such as chemicals, packaging materials, and the carbon footprint of our equipment and supply chain suppliers to minimize their carbon impacts;

- (f) Integrate green chemistry innovation into our processes design and green production, including removal of harmful chemicals that detriment to human health or the environment;
- (g) Set targets to reduce our carbon emissions including scope 1, scope 2 and scope 3;
- (h) Report our greenhouse gas emissions, targets, results and activities openly and in accordance with the Greenhouse Gas Protocol.

Every year, we report on our climate change in our Sustainability Report, which details progress on our long-term focus to improve transparency, set ambitious targets and integrate climate change responsibility across all aspects of our business units. We will continuously introduce specific initiatives to significantly reduce our gas emissions. Our Target is to continuously reduce our carbon footprint and our impact on climate change by decreasing our GHG emissions and improving energy efficiency.

In compliance with the TCFD framework, Frontken has identified and assessed climate change risks and response measures across the corporation. We categorized the potential financial impacts of climate change into transition risks, physical risks, regulatory risks, and climate opportunities. Transition risks are comprised of major carbon reduction costs from Frontken pathways to achieve Net Zero Emissions by 2060. For example, developing energy-saving and carbon reduction technologies, expenses for application projects, paying a premium for green energy, and purchasing carbon credits. Regulatory risks include risks from estimating potential future carbon fees according to local government's policies. Physical risks primarily consist of growing electricity costs from air conditioner use because of slowly rising global temperatures and the cost of responding to climate changes and disasters.

Table 7: Responsible Climate Change Action Plan

Specific actions:	Strongly support the initiatives of the international organizations on climate change, and abide by public policies and local laws and regulations;
	Improve energy efficiency to reduce the energy used in our operations;
	Work with related associations and government agencies to implement green energy technologies such as solar panels and purchase green energy;
	Engage with all the stakeholders including the supply chain to minimise the carbon impacts;
	Continue carrying out GHG reduction actions and set targets to reduce our carbon emissions;
	Continue investing in R&D for sustainable innovation;
	Insist on responsible green production and green innovations and use transparent disclosure to enhance the company's green reputation;
	Each business unit evaluates the risk level for drought and flood every year and come out risk mitigation measures accordingly;
	Implement business continuity plan and update it regularly.

2.1.1 THE GLOBAL ISSUES/RISKS

Over the last 50 years, human activities have released enough carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases to trap additional heat in the lower atmosphere and affect the global climate. In the last 130 years, the world has warmed by approximately 0.85°C. Each of the last 3 decades has been successively warmer than any preceding decade since 1850. Our earth is witnessing human-induced environmental change on a scale and at a pace that is unique in history.

The increased levels of greenhouse gases are warming the planet; the extinction of species is occurring at an ever-faster rate; the renewable resources such as water are being degraded; Sea levels are rising, glaciers are melting and precipitation patterns are changing; and the finite resources such as fossil fuels are having widespread negative impacts on fragile, interconnected, natural systems. Extreme weather events are becoming more intense and frequent.

All populations will be affected by climate change, but some are more vulnerable than others. To survive, we must understand these impacts and develop real-world solutions that sustainably manage human interaction with natural systems. Rising temperatures increase the likelihood of the threat of heatwaves across Asia, droughts in arid and semi-arid areas of West, Central and South Asia, floods in monsoon regions in South, Southeast and East Asia, and glacier melting in the Hindu Kush Himalaya region.

The risk of irreversible loss of biodiversity or habitat of animals or plants including coral reefs, tidal marshes, seagrass meadows, plankton community and other marine and coastal ecosystems increases with global warming. Climate change will also increase vector-borne and water-borne diseases, undernutrition, mental disorders and allergy-related illnesses in Asia due to increasing hazards such as heatwaves, flooding and drought, and air pollutants, in combination with more exposure and vulnerability.

The United Nations (UN) currently lists 22 “Global Issues”. This is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Rather, it serves as an overview of some of the major issues all global citizens should be aware of. The UN has also set 17 goals to be achieved by 2030. These are in line with the most important issues of our time and are known as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs).

We build technology and provide services that enable our customers to be more sustainable and do more for our environment, community, and society. We integrate our technology, business practices, partnerships, supply chain and production processes around a single mission - to build sustainability through actionable technology and make more positive impact towards the environment and society together with our customers, employees and shareholders and stakeholders.

2.1.2 INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK

(a) Paris Agreement to the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change: All major greenhouse-gas emitting countries, including emerging countries, shall reduce their emissions in order to limit global warming by less than 2°C compared to pre-industrial levels by the latter half of this century.

(b) Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Common goals to find solutions by 2030 for pressing world problems such as poverty, inequality, and climate change in order to realize a sustainable society.

(c) Kigali Amendment to the Montreal Protocol: The Kigali Amendment mandates to phase down the production and consumption of HFCs in CO₂-equivalent in order to mitigate their impact on global warming.

(d) U.N. Global Compact: A worldwide framework for achieving sustainable growth by having member companies recognize universal values in relation to issues such as human rights, labour, environment, and corruption.

CHAPTER 3.0 FRONTKEN SUSTAINABILITY PILLARS/THEMES/INDICATORS

3.1 ESG ISSUES ARE MATERIAL RISKS TO BUSINESS

In understanding the environmental, business and society's challenges and issues, Frontken periodically assesses the impact that its business activities have on society and the environment and identifies key challenges (materiality) from two perspectives—"stakeholder concerns and impacts," and "Critical to Frontken."

ESG vs CSR: Although there can be significant overlap between the two, in general, CSR activities are typically voluntary, company-led initiatives, often linked to companies' philanthropic and business objectives related to the society or environment in which they operate. ESG, on the other hand, is about understanding and measuring the impact of relevant risks and disclosing how these risks are managed as part of the overall business strategy.

We have organized these challenges using international frameworks including (a) Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); (b) Global Reporting Initiative; (c) United Nations Global Compact; (d) Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD); (e) Responsible Business Alliance; and (f) ESG Models.

We established Sustainability Pillars/Themes/indicators fundamental to our business activities: into three pillars (namely Environment, social, and governance) and key themes, including environment, corporate governance, respect for human rights, supply chain management, stakeholder engagement, and communities.

3.2 SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) or Global Goals are a collection of 17 interlinked global goals designed to be a "blueprint to achieve a better and more sustainable future for all". The SDGs were set in 2015 by the United Nations General Assembly and are intended to be achieved by the year 2030. They are included in a UN Resolution called the 2030 Agenda or what is colloquially known as Agenda 2030.

The 17 SDGs are: (1) No Poverty, (2) Zero Hunger, (3) Good Health and Well-being, (4) Quality Education, (5) Gender Equality, (6) Clean Water and Sanitation, (7) Affordable and Clean Energy, (8) Decent Work and Economic Growth, (9) Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure, (10) Reducing Inequality, (11) Sustainable Cities and Communities, (12) Responsible Consumption and Production, (13) Climate Action, (14) Life Below Water, (15) Life On Land, (16) Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, (17) Partnerships for the Goals.

3.3 MAPPING FRONTKEN SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT TO UNITED NATIONS SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT GOALS FRAMEWORK

3.4 RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS ALLIANCE (RBA) FRAMEWORK

3.5 FTSE4GOOD BURSA MALAYSIA INDEX FRAMEWORK

We identified the ESG applicable to our business operation based on FTSE4Good Bursa Malaysia Index.

The FTSE4Good Bursa Malaysia Index constituents are selected from the constituents of the FTSE Bursa Malaysia EMAS Index, screened in accordance with the transparent and defined Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) criteria.

The index has been designed to identify Malaysian companies with recognized corporate responsibility practices, expanding the range of the benchmarks of the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Index Series for the Malaysian Markets. The ESG model Ratings use a company's Theme Exposure and Theme score assessment to calculate a range of assessments that allow investors to understand a company's ESG practices in multiple dimensions.

CHAPTER 4.0 FRONTKEN SUSTAINABILITY MATERIALITY ANALYSIS AND ASSESSMENT

4.1 UNDERSTANDING STAKEHOLDER CONCERNS AND IMPACTS

One important judgment criterion in analysing materiality is stakeholder concerns and impacts. To fully understand this, Frontken follows international frameworks toward solving society's challenges (global risks), and it considers stakeholder assessments of Frontken and the wishes and opinions that stakeholders have expressed in dialogue with Frontken.

- [1] Society's challenges (Global risks)
- [2] Extreme weather events and temperatures
- [3] Natural disasters
- [4] Failures of climate change mitigation and adaptation
- [5] Water crises
- [6] Loss of biodiversity
- [7] Pandemics

Note: Source: World Economic Forum Global Risks Perception Survey 2019-2020.

4.2 MATERIALITY ANALYSIS AND ASSESSMENT

We understand and recognize that the risks and opportunities facing our business and stakeholders are constantly changing with rapid global economic and political trends as well as technological development. Therefore, we constantly review and identify our sustainability dimensions through materiality analysis and assessment to assess any shift in priorities with our stakeholders.

Frontken Group has developed this Sustainability Development Roadmap to provide an overview of the company's products, services, and operations relating to environmental, social, and economic performance. Our roadmap is based on the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) framework, which provides a globally relevant standard for reporting environmental, social, and economic performance.

We used the GRI materiality assessment process to determine the content of the report and identify key issues and topics. In this materiality assessment to identify key sustainability topics, the Group worked with stakeholders to review the material corporate responsibility issues that were of the greatest importance to all stakeholders. We have also referenced our materiality assessment to other international framework including Responsible Business Alliance, and Bursa Malaysia FTSE-Russell ESG Model, UN Global Compact, etc.

4.3 REFERENCE MODEL

Our systematic reference model of materiality analysis and assessment is summarized in the figure. With this reference model, the impact of sustainability issues on Frontken operations are evaluated and implemented in the sustainable development management.

4.4 CONTINUOUS SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT

To prioritize key issues, we met with employees across our functional groups to understand their concerns as well as those of our external stakeholders, including customers, shareholders, suppliers, policymakers, and communities. To collect this information, we leveraged the use of meetings, operational and technical reviews.

We used the reference model to understand and identify the level of stakeholder interest in our sustainability issues and use it to monitor our progress of our corporate sustainability, and the priority issues related to the economics, environmental, and social dimensions.

Based on these feedbacks, more than 20 material topics were identified, from which a list of 10 priority topics emerged. We continue to use this process to continuously improve our approach to sustainability development and the direct actions that we take.

A summary of the materiality analysis and assessment, translating into practice areas of the sustainability dimensions are identified.

CHAPTER 5.0 FRONTKEN

SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING GUIDELINE

5.1 GLOBAL REPORTING INITIATIVE (GRI) GUIDELINE

The Global Reporting Initiative (known as GRI) is an international independent standards organization that helps businesses, governments and other organizations understand and communicate their impacts on issues such as climate change, human rights and corruption.

The GRI Standards create a common language for organizations – large or small, private or public – to report on their sustainability impacts in a consistent and credible way. This enhances global comparability and enables organizations to be transparent and accountable.

The GRI content index makes your reported information traceable and increases its credibility and transparency. By using GRI's content index tool, you can create a complete and accurate GRI content index that helps stakeholders navigate your disclosures and information that your organization has reported at a glance.

5.3 INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK FTSE RUSSELL'S ESG RATINGS GUIDELINE

5.3.1 ABOUT FTSE RUSSELL'S ESG RATINGS

The FTSE4Good Index Series uses the overall Rating from FTSE Russell's ESG Ratings and data model to select companies for inclusion. The ESG Ratings include over 7,200 securities in 47 Developed and Emerging markets.

The ESG Ratings are comprised of an overall Rating, which is used to adjust stock weights in the FTSE4Good Index Series. The overall Rating breaks down into underlying Pillar and Theme Exposures and Scores. The Pillars and Themes are built on over 300 individual indicator assessments that are applied to each company's unique ESG risk exposures.

5.3.2 FTSE4GOOD INDEX SERIES GUIDELINE

The FTSE4Good Index Series is designed to measure the performance of companies demonstrating strong Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices. Transparent management and clearly defined ESG criteria make FTSE4Good indexes suitable tools to be used by a wide variety of market participants when creating or assessing sustainable investment products. FTSE4Good indexes can be used in four main ways:

- (a) Financial products - as tools in the creation of index-tracking investments, financial instruments or fund products focused on sustainable investment.
- (b) Research - to identify environmentally and socially sustainable companies.
- (c) Reference - as a transparent and evolving global ESG standard against which companies can assess their progress and achievement.
- (d) Benchmarking - as a benchmark index to track the performance of sustainable investment portfolios.

5.3.3 FTSE4GOOD BURSA MALAYSIA INDEX GUIDELINE

The FTSE4Good Bursa Malaysia Index constituents are selected from the constituents of the FTSE Bursa Malaysia EMAS Index, screened in accordance with the transparent and defined Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) criteria. The index has been designed to identify Malaysian companies with recognised corporate responsibility practices, expanding the range of the benchmarks of the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Index Series for the Malaysian Markets.

The FTSE4Good Bursa Malaysia Index, which was launched in December 2014, has played an important role in recognising companies that have taken steps to improve their ESG practices and disclosures over time. The ESG index adopts a “best in class” positive screening approach and its framework is derived from key global initiatives such as the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) and Taskforce for Climate Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).

13.3 Improve education, awareness raising and human and institutional capacity on climate change mitigation, adaptation, impact reduction and early warning

8.3 RESPONSIBLE GREEN PRODUCTION

The Group has continued to improve its green production method through its research and development to meet the operational challenges that global warming may bring by making progress through innovation. In FY2022, we have built an advanced new production plant in Taiwan and an advanced production line in Singapore. Our advanced production capacity has increased as the chip processes continue to grow more complex. Although we have an additional increase in advanced production capability, however, though our efforts, the unit production average power usage was only slightly increased to 10.17 kWh (FY2021 = 9.22 kWh) per part produced; and the unit production average water usage was also slightly increased to 0.13 (FY2020 = 0.11) cubic metre per part; this is due to (a) a change and optimization in our product and processes mixed and (b) the qualification stage of the new plant in Taiwan and new production line in Singapore; however, the unit production average waste produced was maintained at 0.4 kg (FY2021 = 0.4 kg) per part. Moving forward, these increases will be offset by the continuous increase expansion in our renewable energy and water recycling system and future innovations.

8.3.1 GHG EMISSION DATA

To assess the environmental impact of the Group's business activities, including its value chain, the Group implemented and monitored Scopes 1, 2, and 3 of the greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions. The calculation is based on the GHG Protocol, which is the most widely used international accounting and reporting tool.

8.3.2 FRONTKEN SCOPE 1, 2, AND 3 GHG EMISSION (FY2022)

We have identified Scope 2 electricity consumption as having the greatest potential impact on achieving our stated energy and emissions targets. Most of our energy use is associated with our production. Optimizing energy efficiency in our operations is a key component of company's overall sustainability strategy. We committed to continue to cut energy use to lower our utility costs and reduce our environmental footprint. We are committed to doing our part to achieve a low-carbon future. We've already boosted the share of renewable power in our energy mix. Our sources of renewable energy include On-Site Generation: Renewable power generated by renewable energy sources (i.e., solar).

We continue to enjoy savings from our scrubber overhaul and replacement and energy saving lighting system projects implemented:

- (a) We continue to improve on the optimisation of energy conservation for our scrubbers, which are our single biggest user of electricity. It is important that our scrubbers operate in the most efficient manner. We achieve this through our scrubber overhaul and replacement programme.
- (b) We also continue to explore the use of energy conservation Performance Enhancement Lighting Management System, allowing lighting levels to be automatically managed based on motion detection.
- (c) We continue to enhance the energy conservation initiative by using energy savings lightings at our offices.
- (d) We continue to implement and expand renewable power in our energy mix. In both our Taiwan plant and Singapore Plant, we installed solar photovoltaic systems on the roof of the plant to generate electricity and achieve an average monthly power generation of up to 935,661 kWh; and we accumulatively generated approximately 2,277,595 KW of green power since 2018.

- (e) We continue to improve our energy conservation transformation of the chiller system, office air conditioning system, dust-collecting and exhaust system and lighting system, including the adoption of frequency conversion technology, the installation of flow monitoring and control system and the replacement of energy-saving lightings. To that end, we achieved considerable good results. Consequently, we have continued to save more than 935,661 kWh of electricity using solar energy every year since the implementation of these projects.

8.4 RESPONSIBLE WORKPLACE

8.4.1 NEW NORMAL WORKPLACE

The Group continued to improve and implement Work Safety and Health Hazard Prevention Programs in the workplace which include: conducting a hazard assessment; identifying a combination of measures that limit safety and Health hazard in the workplace; adopting measures to ensure that workers protected; and implemented protections and implemented the “new normal” work practices, including a diverse working approaches in order to improve productivity and allow employees to use their abilities to the utmost. In addition, we are also continuously implementing job redesign, performance management, and other systems to expand the role of, expectations for, and output of each employee’s roles and responsibilities, and accelerate the pivot to job-based and skill-based human capital management.

We see it as our responsibility to provide a safe and injury-free working environment which is set out in our Health, Safety and Environment policy statement. This policy supports the Workplace Safety and Health (“WSH”) regulations in most of the jurisdictions we operate in. We actively promote awareness on workplace occupational health and safety. We aim to elevate the safety standards for our stakeholders through our WSH work plan. We expand our WSH measures such as training and education, fire safety improvements as well as onsite safety inspections.

8.4.2 ENSURE SAFE WORK ENVIRONMENT AND EMPLOYEES’ HEALTH

We believe that a healthy and energetic workforce is the pillar supporting the company’s sustainable growth and performance. We strive to take care of our employees’ safety, work-life integration, as well as physical and mental health. This in turn helps to improve their work-life quality and productivity. Good Health and Well-being is recognized as one of the Sustainable Development Goals for a sustainable future.

We believe that all workplace injuries are preventable, and our ultimate goal is to achieve zero injuries through continued investment in and focus on our core safety programs and injury reduction initiatives. To raise staff awareness, we institute a WSH mandatory training programme for our operation employees to equip them with the knowledge (such as understanding safety responsibilities and covering materials needed for specific jobs – electrical safety, ergonomics, control of hazardous materials and chemical safety) to perform their assigned roles that are compliant.

We always comply with all regulatory requirements relevant and applicable to the health and safety performance of our operations and processes. We have a health and safety system to identify and evaluate health and safety hazards and risks on work tasks, work areas, equipment, and operations, and to identify the controls needed to prevent or minimize worker exposure to health and safety risks. We continuously implement regular internal audits and third-party audits to review and qualify our safety system. During the COVID-19 crisis, the ESH and Sustainability team has developed detailed Health and Safety Protocols for all our sites and operations and to support our employees. See our COVID-19 Protocol Policy.

8.6 RESPONSIBLE SUPPLY CHAIN

In 2022, we continue to focus and support our suppliers' compliance with local, national, and global guidance and requirements for Code of Conduct framework and supplier management as part of our Supplier Code of Conduct.

Frontken Group business operation requires raw materials, chemicals, consumables materials, equipment and supplier services. Our operation will be disrupted if our suppliers cannot deliver their products or perform their services. Therefore, we committed to working proactively together with suppliers to mitigate supply chain risk, optimized delivery, cost and time, and improved suppliers' businesses to grow sustainably.

Frontken Group is committed to achieve Sustainable Supply Chain and we take responsibility to ensure that our business operations including our key suppliers adopt to the best practice of procurement and management of supplies, insurance, and other aspects of operations related to our business sustainability. We implemented the Sustainable Procurement and Supplier Management Policy to ensure excellence in procurement with transparency, fairness, and alignment with best practices that represent the highest standards of quality, integrity and excellence. We respect the unique customs and cultures in communities where we operate. Our Sustainable Procurement and Supplier Management Policy are based on the Responsible Business Alliance (RBA) Code of Conduct framework.

Frontken Group understand the importance of environmental risks in our value chain and we are committed to collaborating with environmentally responsible suppliers. We also recognise the importance of sustainable sourcing and procurement and is committed to responsible supply chain management practices, and developing a strong sustainable relationship with our suppliers; including labour practice, human rights, supplier diversity, environmental impact, data security and material sourcing. We actively collaborate with our suppliers to further our sustainable development efforts. We work with our suppliers to achieve a sustainable business ecosystem based on a philosophy of co-success.

We are committed to grow together with our suppliers by carefully managing the risks and opportunities of our supply chain and considering sustainability at every stage of selecting, operating, and evaluating suppliers. We adopt a risk-based supply chain management practice to ensure that our supply chain is sustainable and resilient. We believe our competitive advantage can be improved by our supplier capabilities.

We help all suppliers to abide by our Supplier Code of Conduct and related guidelines, and to manage their work environment risks related to human rights, EHS and ethics in compliance with local regulations and global standards. Our supply chain is committed to our Supplier Code of Conduct and comply with applicable laws and regulations. The Supplier code of conduct is based on the UN Global Compact Framework and RBA; and it is to mitigate any social, economic and environmental risks by setting the standards for our suppliers to conduct their business.

Assessment and Verification: In order to verify prospective direct suppliers, we require all new direct materials suppliers, as part of the supplier screening process, to provide a completed written certification that addresses risks of human trafficking and slavery.

Auditing: We periodically audit major direct product supplier operations, including to address the risks of human trafficking and slavery in our supply chain.

Qualification and Certification: We request a written certification from major direct product suppliers that the materials incorporated into their products comply with applicable laws and regulations, including laws regarding slavery and human trafficking of the country or countries in which they are doing business.

Training and Education: During the fiscal year, we implemented required annual training of front-line employees and managers with direct responsibility for supply chain management and onsite audits on how to identify and mitigate risks of human trafficking and slavery and related criteria.

Frontken Group is committed to source from a diversity of suppliers who offer products and services that meet our standards, supplier selection criteria, and customer requirements. Our priority is to select partners that help us provide best-in-class products and services with the lowest total cost to our customers.

We are working towards ensuring that our products and services do not contain any Conflict Minerals that have been sourced from mines that support or fund conflict within the Democratic Republic of Congo or adjoining countries.

We are committed to the following policy and we expect our supply chain to follow our commitment:

- (a) Identifying which the products that are impacted and work with our suppliers to determine the sources of any conflict minerals that are contained in our products.
- (b) Conducting due diligence with suppliers to ensure Responsible Supply Chains to eliminate any sourcing and procurement of Minerals from Conflict Affected and High-Risk Areas.
- (c) Partnering with our suppliers to work towards ensuring that any Conflict Minerals contained in the products and materials supplied to us originate from Conflict Free Sources.
- (d) Partnering with our suppliers to provide due diligence information that will ensure responsible sourcing decisions and supply chain transparency;
- (e) Contributing to conflict-free trade by encouraging our suppliers not to discriminate against legitimate sources of Conflict Minerals.

Frontken Group is expected and committed to conduct our business ethically with open and honest communications. We encourage all individuals throughout our value chain to help us address any Ethics and Compliance related issues by asking questions, expressing concerns, making disclosures or filing reports through the Ethics Feedback or other channels, or grievance platform.

8.7 RESPONSIBLE CLIMATE CHANGE

The climate change challenges we face today are global threat facing humanity, however the answers involve a superhuman level of understanding, sacrifice and execution. CO2 is a global pollutant that cannot be locally contained in any location. And is now a reality. The consequences of a global indecision will eventually lead to a very dangerous heat levels, drought, floods and extreme hardship for millions of people all around the world. The climate change has a very extensive disastrous effects on our environment, including but not limited to increasing frequency and intensity of many extreme weather effects, flooding, famine, to changing sea temperature, ocean acidity, and ultimately increase in sea level.

Frontken Group are responding the climate change with high urgency and commitment. We approach our climate change work by focusing on the fundamentals of climate change materiality assessment; including what are the critical issues and where are the greatest impact. This materiality assessment provides a framework for our work across our strategic pillars of climate resilience, resources resilience, and production resilience — and record how we can best execute and achieve the change and reduce our environmental footprint.

Frontken Group will in accordance with our environmental policy and measures committed to:

- (a) Reduce the energy used in our operations; including improved energy efficiency in our buildings, facilities, equipment and tooling;
- (b) Reduce water impacts in the manufacturing of our operations, including the use of our services, and operation of all our facilities;
- (c) Implement alternative or renewable energy technologies such as solar panels, where practical to provide additional sustainable energy for our facilities;
- (d) Engage with all the stakeholders including the supply chain to combat climate change;
- (e) Work with suppliers/partners to reduce the carbon embedded in all consumables such as chemicals, packaging materials, and the carbon footprint of our equipment and supply chain suppliers to minimise their carbon impacts;
- (f) Integrate green chemistry innovation into our processes design and green production, including removal of harmful chemicals that detriment to human health or the environment;
- (g) Set targets to reduce our carbon emissions including scope 1, scope 2 and scope 3;
- (h) Report our greenhouse gas emissions, targets, results and activities openly and in accordance with the Greenhouse Gas Protocol.

Every year, we report on our climate change in our Sustainability Report, which details progress on our long-term focus to improve transparency, set ambitious targets and integrate climate change responsibility across all aspects of our business units. We will continuously introduce specific initiatives to significantly reduce our gas emissions. Our Target is to continuously reduce our carbon footprint and our impact on climate change by decreasing our GHG emissions and improving energy efficiency.

In compliance with the TCFD framework, Frontken has identified and assessed climate change risks and response measures across the corporation. We categorized the potential financial impacts of climate change into transition risks, physical risks, regulatory risks, and climate opportunities. Transition risks are comprised of major carbon reduction costs from Frontken pathways to achieve Net Zero Emissions by 2060. For example, developing energy-saving and carbon reduction technologies, expenses for application projects, paying a premium for green energy, and purchasing carbon credits. Regulatory risks include risks from estimating potential future carbon fees according to local government's policies. Physical risks primarily consist of growing electricity costs from air conditioner use because of slowly rising global temperatures and the cost of responding to climate changes and disasters.

Specific actions:

Strongly support the initiatives of the international organizations on climate change, and abide by public policies and local laws and regulations;

Improve energy efficiency to reduce the energy used in our operations;

Work with related associations and government agencies to implement green energy technologies such as solar panels and purchase green energy;

Engage with all the stakeholders including the supply chain to minimise the carbon impacts;

Continue carrying out GHG reduction actions and set targets to reduce our carbon emissions;

Continue investing in R&D for sustainable innovation;

Insist on responsible green production and green innovations and use transparent disclosure to enhance the company's green reputation;

Each business unit evaluates the risk level for drought and flood every year and come out risk mitigation measures accordingly;

Implement FCB business continuity plan and update it regularly.

CHAPTER 9.0 FRONTKEN

SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT:

ENVIRONMENT

Climate change poses an enormous threat to the safety and well-being of our communities and to the global economy. The earth is witnessing human-induced environmental change on a scale and at a pace that is unique in history. Increased levels of greenhouse gases are warming the planet; the extinction of species is occurring at an ever-faster rate; renewable resources such as water are being degraded; and finite resources such as fossil fuels are having widespread negative impacts on fragile, interconnected, natural systems.

The Global Risks Report 2022, for the first time, points to "Climate Action Failure" as the most severe risk the world will be facing in the next ten years. We care about the impacts of climate on company operations and the potential issues that it may present to society.

The greenhouse effect occurs naturally when heat from the Earth's surface is absorbed by greenhouse gases (GHGs) such as carbon dioxide (CO₂), methane (CH₄), nitrous oxide (N₂O), sulphur hexafluoride (SF₆), hydrofluorocarbons (HFCs) and perfluorocarbons (PFCs).

Total GHG emissions 1990–2021 (GtCO₂e/year)

[Source: United Nations Environment Programme (2022). Emissions Gap Report 2022]

Greenhouse gases are naturally present in the air and allow the Earth's atmosphere to be warm enough to support life. However, human activities such as burning of fossil fuels for energy and industrial production, and clearing of forests to raise livestock, increases the amount of GHGs in the atmosphere. These additional GHGs trap even more heat in the atmosphere, making the Earth warmer. Global warming leads to long-term climate change.

Scientists worry that the accumulation of these gases in the atmosphere has changed and will continue to change the climate. The risk of climate change depends on the physical and socioeconomic implications of a changing climate. Potential climate change risks have several effects including more severe weather patterns; damage to human-built environments, chaotic ecosystems, damage biodiversity; changes in patterns of drought and flood, with less potable water; inundation of coastal areas from rising sea levels; and more deaths from heat waves, storms, and contaminated water, and increased incidence of tropical diseases.

Scientists reach this conclusion by looking at two trends. First, global surface temperature data show that Earth has warmed 0.5 °C (1 °F) over the past 100 years. At the same time, atmospheric concentrations of GHGs such as CO₂ have increased by about 30% over the past 200 years.

The threat of climate change is being addressed globally by the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC): the long-term objective is 'to stabilise atmospheric greenhouse gas concentrations at a level that would prevent dangerous anthropogenic interference with the climate system'.

According to the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), to keep global warming below 2 °C, emissions of carbon dioxide (CO₂) and other greenhouse gases (GHGs) must be halved by 2050 (compared with 1990 levels). The world will see serious climate impacts at 1.5°C. But after that it gets much worse. The difference between 1.5°C and 2°C can be summarised as follows:

- (a) the difference between 70% or 99% of coral reefs dying;
- (b) double the likelihood that insects, vital pollinators, lose half their habitat;
- (c) ice-less summers in The Arctic Ocean once per century or once per decade;
- (d) one meter added in sea-level rise;
- (e) 6 million to 16 million affected by sea-level rise in coastal areas by the end of this century.

The resulting extremes in weather patterns are already causing significant disruption to people and economies across the world. This disruption will inevitably increase through the 21st century, as levels of greenhouse gases (GHGs) in the atmosphere continue to grow. Frontken acknowledges the scientific consensus, as set out clearly in the latest assessment report from the United Nations (UN) Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), that emissions of carbon dioxide (CO₂) and other GHGs from human activity are leading to changes in the global climate.

Our climate change management focuses internally on strengthening own capabilities in both mitigation and adaptation capabilities, and externally on both supply chain carbon reduction, and providing customers with low carbon services to form our major management strategies.

9.1 MANAGING ENVIRONMENT RISKS

This Climate change will affect almost every aspect of Frontken business from our research and development to production processes, to products and services, to supply chain, and sales activities. Frontken Group is committed to understand, mitigate, manage, and minimize our environmental footprint across our value chain, including our business operations, suppliers and customers. We expect the impact on process development and production to be especially significant. This has led us to develop energy-efficient processes while working hard to reduce GHG emissions. In the short-term, we consider carbon prices (carbon credit prices), extreme weather conditions, and changes to customer behaviour as the leading potential risks and recognize the development of energy-efficient process as an opportunity.

We continuously monitor potential environment-related risks on an annual basis, with responsibility for identifying company-wide and site-specific risks resting with a core team of global emergency response, crisis management, and business continuity personnel, as well as local facilities teams. We continue to strengthen our environmental programmes, focusing on strategic initiatives that we believe will yield greater impact over the long term. Our risk identification, mitigation, and management plans help ensure our ability to recover quickly from climate-related events and effectively support our customers' and suppliers' operations.

We aim to address the threats of environment risks and climate change through both mitigation and adaptation efforts. Improving energy efficiency and minimizing overall consumption and dependence on non-renewable energy sources are key areas of action in our environmental strategy. In addition to our energy efficiency initiatives, we actively explore opportunities to utilize alternate forms of energy for our operations. We also work to minimize our emissions of volatile organic compounds (VOCs), hazardous air pollutants (HAPs), nitrogen oxides (NOx), and carbon monoxide (CO) emissions through the use of wet scrubbers. The emphasis of our environmental activities is reflected in our focus on Health Safety Environmental (HSE) Management System. We believe we can maximize reducing the environment risk and climate footprint of our products and services through the following efforts.

- (a) Focus on maximizing energy efficiency and minimizing consumption
 - (i) Scope 1, 2, and 3 GHG Emissions

9.2 ENVIRONMENT - OUR CLIMATE CHANGE MANAGEMENT

We have integrated oversight and management responsibility for environmental sustainability issues at multiple levels of the company, and across the countries where we operate. We support transparency related to the financial risks of climate change, to help investors, lenders, insurers, and other stakeholders better understand our climate risks. We are working towards the benchmarking and aligning our disclosures with reference to the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD), which has developed a voluntary framework for companies to report on their climate-related financial risk disclosure.

Our sustainability practices drive efficiency, lower costs and decrease negative impacts on the communities where we operate, and reduce resource use. Our goal is to enable us to grow our operations without correspondingly increasing our environmental footprint. We work to engage all of our employees in helping to reduce our environmental impact. We also work collaboratively with governments, environmental groups and other companies to broaden our impact in addressing environmental issues. We set up the management system to conduct self-assessments including reviews of environmental performance related to HSE compliance.

Frontken Group will in accordance with our environmental policy and measures committed to:

- (a) Reduce the energy used in our operations; including improved energy efficiency in our buildings, facilities, equipment and tooling;
- (b) Reduce water impacts in the manufacturing of our operations, including the use of our services, and operation of all our facilities;
- (c) Implement alternative or renewable energy technologies such as solar panels, where practical to provide additional sustainable energy for our facilities;
- (d) Engage with all the stakeholders including the supply chain to combat climate change;
- (e) Work with suppliers/partners to reduce the carbon embedded in all consumables such as chemicals, packaging materials, and the carbon footprint of our equipment and supply chain suppliers to minimise their carbon impacts;
- (f) Integrate green chemistry innovation into our processes design and green production, including removal of harmful chemicals that detriment to human health or the environment;
- (g) Set targets to reduce our carbon emissions including scope 1, scope 2 and scope 3;
- (h) Report our greenhouse gas emissions, targets, results and activities openly and in accordance with the Greenhouse Gas Protocol.

We pledged to reduce our Emissions Intensity (EI) – the amount of GHGs emitted per dollar revenue – by 50 per cent by 2050, and to stabilise emissions with the aim of peaking around 2050; and to achieve Net Zero Emissions by 2060.

We advocate and act upon the principles of operational transparency and respects shareholder rights. We believe that the basis for successful corporate governance is a sound and effective Board of Directors. We also linked shareholders' interests and ESG (including climate change management) achievements to Frontken corporate executives' compensation by introducing incentive and performance bonuses; and the employee restricted stock awards (RSAs) issuance plan approved by the Board and the Shareholders.

Every year, we report on our climate change in our Sustainability Report, which details progress on our long-term focus to improve transparency, set ambitious targets and integrate climate change responsibility across all aspects of our business units. We will continuously introduce specific initiatives to significantly reduce our gas emissions. Our Target is to continuously reduce our carbon footprint and our impact on climate change by decreasing our GHG emissions and improving energy efficiency.

9.3 ENVIRONMENT - CLIMATE CHANGE

The climate change challenges we face today are global threat facing humanity, however the answers involve a superhuman level of understanding, sacrifice and execution. CO2 is a global pollutant that cannot be locally contained in any location. And is now a reality. The consequences of a global indecision will eventually lead to a very dangerous heat levels, drought, floods and extreme hardship for millions of people all around the world. The climate change has a very extensive disastrous effects on our environment, including but not limited to increasing frequency and intensity of many extreme weather effects, flooding, famine, to changing sea temperature, ocean acidity, and ultimately increase in sea level.

Frontken Group are responding the climate change with high urgency and commitment. We approach our climate change work by focusing on the fundamentals of climate change materiality assessment; including what are the critical issues and where are the greatest impact. This materiality assessment provides a framework for our work across our strategic pillars of climate resilience, resources resilience, and production resilience — and record how we can best execute and achieve the change and reduce our environmental footprint.

9.3.1 FOCUS ON MAXIMIZING ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND MINIMIZING CONSUMPTION;

Frontken Group is committed to minimize the issues of climate change. We identify related issues, analyse risks, and establish and implement sustainability strategies to decouple our business growth from our total carbon emission. We regularly discuss environment climate change within the various management team and sustainability development committees and manage Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions (Scope 1 and Scope 2 and scope 3) at all worksites every month through the Health, Safety Environment (HSE), embracing an efficient, clean-energy future toward a low-carbon economy.

We focused on maximizing energy performance and minimizing consumption. We reduce our impact on the environment by conserving energy throughout our operations and supporting clean and renewable energy sources, improve our facility infrastructure with more energy-efficient method and equipment. Other approaches include

- a) optimized energy-use monitoring and energy conservation;
- b) purchase the most energy-efficient new equipment or emissions-control technologies.

9.3.2 EMISSIONS DATA - GHG EMISSIONS CLASSIFICATION

- (a) Scope 1 – Direct Emissions from company facilities, fleets, etc;
- (b) Scope 2 – Indirect Emissions from electricity purchased and used by the company;
- (c) Scope 3 – Other Indirect Emissions from company activities via entities beyond its ownership or control (procurement, shipping, distribution, waste, etc.), as well as business travel and employee commuting.

In accordance with the GHG Protocol Corporate Accounting Standard, we report Scope 1 and Scope 2 emissions separately. Our list of Scope 3 emissions is based on the GHG Protocol Scope 3 Standard (Corporate Value Chain Accounting and Reporting Standard). We have studied in details all 15 categories in this standard for relevance and report the emissions for the relevant categories.

9.3.3 SCOPE 2 ELECTRICITY CONSUMPTION

We have identified Scope 2 electricity consumption as having the greatest potential impact on achieving our stated energy and emissions targets. Most of our energy use is associated with our production. Optimizing energy efficiency in our operations is a key component of company's overall sustainability strategy. We committed to continue to cut energy use to lower our utility costs and reduce our environmental footprint. We are committed to doing our part to achieve a low-carbon future.

We've already boosted the share of renewable power in our energy mix. Our sources of renewable energy include On-Site Generation: Renewable power generated by renewable energy sources (i.e., solar). Meanwhile we support to purchase green power and use solar, wind, fuel cell, and other alternative energy sources.

We continue to enjoy savings from our scrubber overhaul and replacement and energy saving lighting system projects implemented:

- (a) We continue to improve on the optimization of energy conservation for our scrubbers, which are our single biggest user of electricity. It is important that our scrubbers operate in the most efficient manner. We achieve this through our scrubber overhaul and replacement program.
- (b) We also continue to explore the use of energy conservation Performance Enhancement Lighting Management System, allowing lighting levels to be automatically managed based on motion detection.

- (c) We continue to enhance the energy conservation initiative by using energy savings lightings at our offices.
- (d) We continue to implement and expand renewable power in our energy mix. In both our Taiwan plant and Singapore Plant, we installed solar photovoltaic systems on the roof of the plant to generate electricity and achieve an average monthly power generation of up to 935,661 kWh; and we accumulatively generated approximately 2,277,595 KW of green power since 2018.
- (e) We continue to improve our energy conservation transformation of the chiller system, office air conditioning system, dust-collecting and exhaust system and lighting system, including the adoption of frequency conversion technology, the installation of flow monitoring and control system and the replacement of energy-saving lightings. To that end, we achieved considerable good results. Consequently, we have continued to save more than 935,661 kWh of electricity using solar energy every year since the implementation of these projects.

9.3.4 ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT OF THE FRONTKEN SEMICONDUCTOR VALUE CHAIN

To assess the environmental impact of the Group's business activities, including its value chain, the Frontken Group monitor Scope 1, 2, and 3 of the greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. The calculation is based on the GHG Protocol, which is the most widely used international accounting and reporting tool.

13.3 Improve education, awareness-raising and human and institutional capacity on climate change mitigation, adaptation, impact reduction and early warning

9.6.2 OUR OPERATIONAL WATER FOOTPRINT

We are committed to undertake the following actions, where appropriate, continuously: Conduct a comprehensive water-use assessment to understand the extent to which the company uses water in the direct production of goods and services. Set targets for our operations related to water conservation and waste-water treatment, framed in a corporate cleaner production and consumption strategy. Seek to invest in and use new technologies to achieve these goals. Raise awareness of water sustainability within corporate culture. Include water sustainability considerations in business decision-making – e.g., facility-siting, due diligence, and production processes.

9.6.3 WASTEWATER RECYCLING AND REUSE

By continuously collecting and reusing wastewater from our production processes and systems, we are reducing the amount of water used and wastewater effluent. Through these recycling and reuse activities, we reduce environmental loads on water resources due to the intake and effluent of water in our production activities.

We continuously reuse UPW after the final cleaning process for other industrial purposes. Our ultimate vision is to continuously reuse water in our operations to reduce our discharged water. We currently discharge water from our operations in compliance with local permits.

We Setup waste DIW collection system at Taiwan plant for recycling to reduce the waste of water resource. We conserved about 15% water annually. The wastewater that cannot be recycled or reused will go through a waste treatment system to remove any heavy metal contaminations, with strict quality control and assurance according to the local laws, regulations, and requirements before being discharged out into the public system. We are committed to protect the water sources in our communities where we operate, and we practice strong water discipline throughout our entire value chain.

9.7 ENVIRONMENT: WASTE REDUCTION

9.7.1 FOCUS ON WASTE REDUCTION

Frontken group is committed to minimizing waste across our operations, focusing our waste reduction efforts on diverting waste from the landfill in order to reduce our environmental footprint, conserve valuable operational resources and help the communities that we serve.

We create and operate comprehensive waste management programs including waste reduction, reuse, and recycling and refurbish and separation programs, to minimize the amount of waste generated from our production and related activities. For the management of hazardous waste, we outsource to licensed third-party hazardous material disposal companies to manage the hazardous waste, consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

Most of the waste generated from our wastewater treatment plant (WWTP). We have hazardous waste which disposal is under regulations and non-hazardous waste, include non-regulated wastes such as plastics, metal and paper. Reducing, reusing, and recycling this waste can reduce waste management costs, lower our environmental impact, and indirectly generate other income and revenue.

- (a) Engage our employee to reduce, reuse and recycle our non-hazardous waste;
- (b) To reduce hazardous waste to landfill through innovative applications by select green chemical and other alternative chemicals.

We reuse DIW in our process base on their condition. The accumulative waste DIW recycling has achieved 307,623 Ton since 2018. At the same time, through the general waste recycling project, we achieved the recycle amount 381,196 since 2018. They include waste PE bags, plastic-bottles, waste metal and paper.

We actively monitor our waste management practices both as part of doing business and in the corporate office environment. We continued to undertake initiatives to create awareness among employees and promote best practices in waste management. Our efforts in this space support the Sustainable Development Goal on Responsible Consumption and Production. We are in the process of conducting a thorough audit of our domestic waste to set a Baseline of our waste separation and disposal practices. We will be running a number of programmes to change people's behaviours towards waste, and then further audits to measure the effect on our domestic waste. We encourage our customers and employees to reduce, reuse and recycle the waste items like e-waste, paper, chemical and cleanroom wipers through a number of initiatives.

9.8 ENVIRONMENT: CHEMICAL MANAGEMENT

Frontken Group uses substantial types of chemicals and related materials (both hazardous and non-hazardous) for our operations. There is a legal requirement for all who produce, keep or dispose of waste of any type to comply with the various regulations and the Duty of Care under Environmental Protection legislation. Frontken Group recognises the importance of meeting these legal requirements and to manage its chemicals responsibly, reduce to minimize or eliminate the use of certain environmentally sensitive materials in our operation and production processes.

Frontken Group recognise that the chemical management and disposal from our operation imposes environmental and societal issues and contributing to Climate Change. Frontken Group is committed to protection of the environment and employees' health and safety through the implementation of an effective and sustainable chemical management programme, which is regularly reviewed and updated to ensure that it continues to meet or exceed legislative and regulatory requirements as well as industry standard best practice.

9.8.1 RESTRICTED MATERIALS

Substances subject to restrictions are hazardous chemicals, and therefore must be used under strictly controlled conditions since their manufacture, marketing or use represent unacceptable risks for human health or the environment.

The serious damages caused by exposure to restricted substances make the highly dangerous substances and their elimination/substitution shall be proposed as a preventive measure according with the first principle of preventive action expressed in the policy on safety and health of workers at work.

CHAPTER 10.0 FRONTKEN SUSTAINABILITY DEVELOPMENT: OUR PEOPLE

10.1 PEOPLE IS OUR KEY ASSET

Our people are keys to the Group's long-term growth and success. We want to be an employer that our people are proud to work for. We are committed to growing with our people and making the company a vibrant and safe workplace. To achieve this, we strive to create an open and trusting work environment characterised by equal opportunity, as well as a diverse, inclusive, collaborative and learning culture. We invest in our people and empower them to achieve their full potential both personally and professionally. Social sustainability is a worthy business investment.

When workers are paid fairly and work under safe working conditions, they are healthier and more productive. Healthier and more productive workers then translate to more profits for companies. Furthermore, socially sustainable companies enjoy greater consumer patronage, as consumers tend to support businesses that treat their workers fairly.

We practice diversity, specifically in the workforce, management and the Board, which is characterized by the nationalities, gender, age, etc., to promote racial harmony, social stability, and ensure sustainable development of our company.

We also practice employment of vulnerable groups such as the elderly and disabled persons, to ensure inclusion and achieve corporate social responsibility.

We participate in social activities, such as blood donation, food donations, other donations and public participation in charity sports, and related activities to contribute to society and the community.

Social sustainability performance issues include human rights, fair labour practices, living conditions, health, safety, wellness, diversity, equity, work-life balance, empowerment, community engagement, philanthropy, volunteerism, and more. Though social impact, or social sustainability, issues are not easily quantifiable or measurable, they are easier to identify. Our goal is to create a work environment to which our employees can contribute with joy and commitment.

When employees are treated fairly, they feel valued and will be more motivated to do their best for the organisation. This will help to raise the morale of employees and boost work productivity.

Frontken Group is committed to fair employment practices are based on the five principles below.

- 1) Recruit Based on Merit: Recruit and select employees on the basis of merit (such as skills, experience or ability to perform the job), and regardless of age, race, gender, religion, marital status and family responsibilities, or disability.
- 2) Respect Employees: Treat employees fairly and with respect and implement progressive human resource management systems.
- 3) Provide Fair Opportunities: Provide employees with fair opportunity to be considered for training and development based on their strengths and needs to help them achieve their full potential.
- 4) Reward Fairly: Reward employees fairly based on their ability, performance, contribution and experience.
- 5) Comply with Labour Laws: Abide by labour laws and adopt the Tripartite Guidelines on Fair Employment Practices.

At the same time, Frontken has taken the following actions to improve workforce diversity, equal opportunities, or reduce discrimination, including those based on: a) Race; b) Religion; c) Gender; d) Age; e) Sexual orientation; f) Disabilities; g) Nationality.

- a) Create a culture of fairness and inclusion. We believe a substantial diversity and inclusion strategy can help Frontken attain top talent, driving innovative outcomes.
- b) Offer all staff appropriate diversity and inclusion training. In addition, all Frontken supervisors and managers have received training on handling of reports or instances of bullying or harassment.
- c) Identify and prevent unconscious biases. Pay particular attention to bias relating to the nine protected characteristics (e.g., age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage, pregnancy, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation and country of origin) as this is discrimination.
- d) Create our equality, diversity & inclusion policies to make sure everyone should be treated fairly in all day-to-day activities and work-related decisions (recruitment, training, promotion, allocating work, pay, etc.).
- e) Be aware of indirect discrimination. Workplace equality isn't just about implementing procedures to stop workplace discrimination. We also have to actively promote equality and inclusion, ensuring people are free to focus on what matters most - making our company the best it can be.
- f) Diversity and equality in the recruitment process.

3. WHISTLE BLOWING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

3.1 If any employee believes reasonably and in good faith that suspected incident of improper conduct or malpractice exists within the Group, the employee should report this immediately to his immediate superior or management in writing, providing as much detail as possible and specifying:

3.2 The management who receives the complaint shall maintain all complaints received, tracking their receipt, investigation and resolution. Each report shall be screened to assess its reliability and whether there is sufficient information to warrant an investigation.

3.3 The management may decide not to investigate a complaint if in his opinion the complaint:

- a) is trivial; or
- b) is frivolous or vexatious; or
- c) if the Whistle Blower has had knowledge for more than 12 months of the disclosed matter and failed to give a satisfactory explanation for the delay in making the disclosure.

- c) should be prepared to be interviewed by the management or the Investigating Officer (as defined below);
- d) may not act on his own in conducting any investigation; and
- e) will not be immune to disciplinary action if he is found guilty of or is a party to the allegations.

- a) confidentiality of information and communications must be maintained.
- b) issues must be addressed promptly.
- c) the investigation must locate and assess all evidence that either substantiates or refutes the complaint.

- e) all actions and the conduct of the investigation must be unbiased and must not draw conclusions until all the evidence has been collated and reviewed.

The Whistle Blower will receive update on the progress of the investigation and its outcome, unless this would be detrimental to the Whistle Blower or the investigation, or unless there are other reasons not to inform the Whistle Blower (such as the infringement of a duty of confidentiality owed by the Group to another party).

3.8 The investigator will be responsible for safeguarding all information received from a Whistle Blower. The knowing unauthorised disclosure of Whistle Blower's information or the identity of a Whistle Blower by any employee may constitute misconduct for which, if established, disciplinary measures may be imposed.

3.9 The person who is being investigated by the Company shall:

- c) the use of the above reporting procedures is not appropriate in view of the circumstances or nature of the incidents (for instance, if there is a conflict of interest or a risk of reprisals, the intended recipient of the complaint is personally implicated in the incidents to be reported).

The Whistle Blower may report to: +60123850640 or joharmurad@gmail.com; or +60122902886 or stevengcw632@gmail.com.

The responsibilities of an Investigating Officer are:

- a) investigating a complaint received from the Whistle Blower;
- b) keeping secure all records, documents and reports collated during an investigation;
- c) providing a progress report in relation to the complaint to the SINED; and
- d) providing feedback to the Whistle Blower following any investigation with the outcome of the investigation.

Where necessary, the SINED may enlist external experts to conduct an investigation of the complaint at the expense of the Company.

3.12 It should be noted that cases relating to suspected criminal activity, including but not limited to fraud, may be referred to the police at any stage of the investigation and will then be investigated by an external investigator.

3.13 Following investigation of the complaint, the investigator or Investigating Officer (as the case may be) shall recommend disciplinary or remedial action, if any. The SINED will make a decision based on the findings reported and recommendations. If a complaint made in good faith is subsequently found to be untrue, no action would be initiated against the Whistle Blower. However, action will be taken against Whistle Blower making baseless allegations.

3.14 The investigator or Investigation Officer (as the case may be) shall submit a written report to the SINED, no later than 2 weeks before the end of each quarter, on the progress or result of all investigation and any actions taken in connection therewith. The report shall contain:

If the complaint is deemed by the SINED to be material or otherwise appropriate for the attention of the Board, it shall be so brought up at the following Board meeting.

3.15 All employees, directors and officers must fully co-operate with any investigation initiated under this Policy.

3.16 All employees, directors and officers must refrain from any activity that is, or could be perceived to be, victimisation or harassment of a Whistle Blower making a complaint in good faith. Any effort to retaliate against such Whistle Blower will be reported immediately to the SINED and appropriate disciplinary action taken.

3.17 Any attempt to cover up wrongdoing is a disciplinary offence. If the Whistle Blower is told not to raise or pursue a complaint, even by a person in authority, he should report the matter to the SINED.

3.18 The Group acknowledges that the act of whistleblowing should not shield Whistle Blower from the reasonable consequences flowing from any involvement in improper conduct. The Whistle Blower's liability for his own conduct is not affected by his disclosure of that conduct. However, in some circumstances, an admission may be a mitigating factor when considering disciplinary or other action.

3.19 Upon completion of an investigation, all documentation pertaining to the complaint including but not restricted to the investigation report, corrective action taken and evidence shall be maintained by the Human Resource Department.

3.20 A summary of the Whistle Blowing procedures is set out in Appendix I.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

4.1 All complaints received will be kept confidential and will be shared only on a 'need to know' basis.

4.2 The identity of a Whistle Blower will not be disclosed without his prior consent. Where concerns cannot be resolved without revealing the identity of the Whistle Blower (i.e., if the evidence is required in court), a dialogue will be carried out with the Whistle Blower as to whether and how the matter can be proceeded.

G-08 FCB ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

Frontken Group has implemented an Enterprise Risk Management framework (“ERM Framework”) that encompasses relevant policies and guidelines to streamline the Group’s risk management imperatives in a structured and comprehensive manner to safeguard shareholders’ investment and the Group’s assets. This ERM Framework accords largely with the ISO31000:2018 Risk Management – Guidelines, which set out the key principles, framework and process on risk management. With this ERM Framework, the Board has established an on-going process to identify, evaluate, control, report and monitor significant business risks faced by the Group on an ongoing basis. The Board, through its Audit Committee, reviews the outcome of this process, including mitigating measures implemented by Management to address the key risks as identified. The results and findings of the ERM process will be documented and disclose as a risk management and internal controls statement and will be presented for inclusion in the Annual Report of the Company. The policy is supportive of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance (Guidance on Risk Management, Internal Control and Related Financial and Business Reporting). We recognise that timely and accurate monitoring, review, communication and reporting of risk is critical to providing: (a) early warning mechanisms for the effective management of risk occurrences; (b) assurance to management, the Board and shareholders; (c) solid business growth and resilience platform.

Frontken board of directors assumes its overall responsibility for the Group’s Enterprise Risk Management of risk management and internal control to safeguard shareholders’ investment and the Group’s assets as well as reviewing the adequacy and operating effectiveness of this risks system in meeting the Group’s corporate objectives. Frontken board of directors are committed to establish clear roles and responsibilities in discharging its fiduciary and leadership functions in line with the Principles, Practices and Guidance of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance (“MCCG”). These MCCG practises include:

- a) ensure a sound framework for internal controls and risk management;
- b) understand the principal risks of the Company’s businesses and recognise that business decisions involve the taking of appropriate risks;
- c) set the risk appetite within which the Board expects Management to operate and ensure that there is an appropriate risk management framework to identify, analyse, evaluate, manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks;
- d) establish an effective risk management and internal control framework; and
- e) disclose the features of its risk management and internal control framework, and the adequacy and effectiveness of this framework.

This is a group wide ERM policy and applies to all business unit managers and employees, functions and operations in each country in which Frontken operates. We understand that risk and opportunity are dynamic and ever present in our complex internal and external operating environments. Frontken Group is committed to the ongoing development of the enterprise-wide approach to risk management and internal controls to ensure that it is supported by a strong risk aware culture within the group. Our risk management is embodied in the Group’s key business processes through the ERM Framework, which sets out, amongst others, an easy-to-understand step-by-step approach to identify and evaluate risks faced by business units and, by extension, the Group. To harmonise risk management initiatives and activities, the Board has formalised in writing relevant risk management policies and guidelines for adherence by business units across the Group.

The ERM Framework comprises a structured assessment process, culminating in the compilation of specific risk profiles of key business units and companies in the Group by Risk Management Units (“RMUs”), including the semi-annual update of risk profiles to take into account the vagaries of evolving business environment as well as emerging risks. The individual risks are scored for their likelihood of occurrence and the impact thereof based on a ‘5 by 5’ risk matrix, deploying parameters established for each key business unit or company in the Group. The risk parameters comprise relevant financial and non-financial metrics for risks to be evaluated or quantified, as the case may be, in terms of likelihood of their occurrence and the impact thereof. The use of such metrics essentially articulates the Board’s risk appetite, i.e., the extent of risk the Group is prepared to take or seek in achieving its business objectives.

The details of specific risks are documented in individual risk registers, covering the risk description, root causes, risk consequences, internal controls implemented by Management to address the root causes, Management’s assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls and the residual risk rating, i.e., the balance of risk after considering the effects of internal controls deployed to manage the exposure. The action plans that Management has taken and/or is taking to mitigate the risks to acceptable levels are reported by the RMUs to the Audit Committee and the outcome is documented in the Audit Committee meeting minutes, including any comments that the Audit Committee may have. The Audit Committee is tasked to brief the Board the outcome of the risk update and mitigating measures deployed, including any significant issues therefrom. For each of the business risks identified, a risk owner is entrusted to ensure appropriate actions are taken to mitigate the risk to an acceptable level within specified timeline.

The Risk Coordinator of the Group, when reviewing the risk update carried out by business units, enquires into the status of action plans undertaken by Management of the business units concerned before reporting to the Audit Committee. During each financial year under review, there will be two (2) risk updates conducted by the various business units and companies in the Group with the outcome reported by the Risk Coordinator to the Audit Committee and thereafter to the Board for further comments. The business risks as identified encompassed risks on strategies, finance, operations, regulatory compliance, reputation, cyber security and sustainability.

Our implementation of risk management and internal controls system to mitigate our risks can be summarised in to a framework as follows:

- a) an organisation structure with clearly defined lines of responsibilities and appropriate levels of delegation and authority, including financial limits of authority in approving transactions and activities as well as mandate to operate bank accounts. This structure also sets out clear reporting lines and segregation of duties for key processes like strategic management, operations, sales and collections, procurement and payment, human resource management, capital expenditure, research and development, financial reporting, corporate affairs and investments;
- b) a process of hierarchical reporting which provides a documented and auditable trail of accountability, with appropriate sign-off by personnel entrusted with the responsibilities;
- c) an annual budgetary exercise that requires all business units and companies in the Group to formulate financial budgets which are then consolidated into a Group budget, presented to the Board for comments and ultimate approval.
- d) quarterly reviews of the Group’s performance against budget are carried out at Board meetings where explanations on significant variances or unusual fluctuations are furnished by Management.

- e) management meetings at operational level are conducted to review financial performance against business plans and monitor the respective business unit's performance against budget;
- f) significant changes in business development are reported by Management to the Board at scheduled meetings. This oversight review enables the Board to evaluate and monitor the Group's business performance vis-à-vis its strategic objectives;
- g) the Audit Committee, which is entrusted by the Board to oversee, amongst others, the Company's financial reporting process, in particular the quarterly and annual announcements of the Group's financial performance, meets at least quarterly to review the announcements, seeks clarification and explanations from Management before recommending the announcements to the Board for approval;
- h) internal policies and procedures on key business processes are formalised in writing for application by personnel across the Group. These policies and procedures provide the necessary guidance to personnel on complying with internal control requirements and applicable laws and regulations;
- i) structured whistle-blower policies and procedures are formalised in writing to enable employees of the Group to raise genuine concerns about suspected improprieties on matters of financial reporting, non-compliance with laws and regulations, malpractices or unethical business conduct within the Group at the earliest opportunity and in an appropriate way without fear of reprisal; and
- j) where issues arise that affect the reliability and integrity of financial information of any business unit, special audits are commissioned by the Audit Committee or Senior Management, as the case may be, to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities.

Frontken Board of Directors, through the Audit and Risk Committee, oversees the establishment and implementation of the risk management system and annually reviews the effectiveness of the system, including;

- a) Review the ERM program that identifies critical areas of risk;
- b) Implementation of risk mitigation strategies to manage all identified critical risks including the risk transfer strategy through insurance, etc;
- c) Promote strong risk management culture across business levels and functions;
- d) Compliant with the requirements of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance (Guidance on Risk Management, Internal Control and Related Financial and Business Reporting);
- e) Use external audit, as part of the risk review processes, to ensure consistency and transparency in methodology, assessment and management and controls processes in the area of risk management and will report on them in line with the annual reporting procedures.

We expect all business unit managers and employees to play a role in managing our enterprise risk by identifying opportunities and minimising uncertainty in a way that enables the Frontken to achieve its mission – growing our business profitably; improving our resilient; enhancing stakeholder value; and contributing to the communities and sustainable future of each country in which Frontken operates.

We expect our business unit managers to be responsible for:

- a) Promoting the risk management policy, framework and expectations for the management of risk;
- b) Provision and support of appropriate resources to manage risk in accordance with the framework;
- c) Escalating critical risks in accordance with the requirements of the ERM Framework;

- d) Implementation of cost-effective risk management and internal control systems in accordance with guidelines to manage risk.

We expect all our employees to be responsible to improve operational efficiencies and optimise outcomes, including reporting immediately to management any real or perceived risks that can become apparent and may significantly impact our operation in term of:

- a) Commercial viability;
- b) Profitability;
- c) Assets;
- d) Customers;
- e) safety;
- f) Regulatory;
- g) Environment;
- h) Sustainability;
- i) Community

We identify and register all related risk through a thorough risk identification and assessment process, and any key mitigations following the ERM Framework; and each business unit and key functions are accountable for managing their risks and maintain a register of these risks as they relate to their business objectives and indicators. Strategic risk review of risk registers and key mitigations are conducted quarterly, documented and reported quarterly to the Risk Committee and annually to the Board.

Our risk management policy is supported by other policies and standards as issued from time to time. These documents can be referred to our master list. We will continuously introduce specific initiatives to significantly improve enterprise risk management, internal controls and governance. We will improve our employee's risk culture and understanding of the ERM processes. We will train our employees to enhance their understanding risk processes to ensure that they have the skills, technical expertise and knowledge to effectively and accurately fulfil their risk management responsibilities, and perform to the best of their abilities. This enables our people to develop into talented and competent professionals, to meet their development needs and remain motivated and challenged in their roles.

We periodically assess for signs of major operational risks, including risks in loss of key management without replacement; loss of a major market, key customer(s), license, or principal supplier(s); labour difficulties; shortages of important supplies; emergence of a highly successful competitor; natural disaster, etc. We also periodically assess for signs of other major risks, including risks in non-compliance with capital or other statutory or regulatory requirements, such as solvency or liquidity requirements for financial institutions; pending legal or regulatory proceedings against the entity; changes in law or regulation or government policy expected to adversely affect the entity; uninsured or underinsured catastrophes when they occur, etc.

We will ensure the confidentiality, anonymity, and protection of supplier and employee whistleblower are to be maintained, unless prohibited by law.

12.6 SUPPLIER ENGAGEMENT ACTIVITIES

We engage our suppliers using a variety of methods which include the supplier self-assessments, risk assessments, and third-party on-site audits, approved vendor list, etc. Through these methods, we assess how the suppliers performed relative to our standards, identify potential risks, and address concerns. We also work closely with suppliers to build capabilities in areas like improving environmental performance, protecting workers from hazardous manufacturing process chemicals, and increasing transparency in the mineral supply chain. The supplier audits and qualification processes include:

- a) Audits and Assessments and Qualification Activities;
- b) Meetings (Dialogues, Discussions, Project Meetings, Teleconferences, etc.);
- c) Training and Education;
- d) Trade Fairs, Forums.

Assessment and Verification: To verify prospective direct suppliers, we require all new direct materials suppliers, as part of the supplier screening process, to provide a completed written certification that addresses risks of human trafficking and slavery.

Auditing: We periodically audit major direct product supplier operations, including to address the risks of human trafficking and slavery in our supply chain.

Qualification and Certification: We request a written certification from major direct product suppliers that the materials incorporated into their products comply with applicable laws and regulations, including laws regarding slavery and human trafficking of the country or countries in which they are doing business.

Training and Education: During the fiscal year, we implemented required annual training of front-line employees and managers with direct responsibility for supply chain management and onsite audits on how to identify and mitigate risks of human trafficking and slavery and related criteria.

12.7 SUPPLY CHAIN RISK MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

We are committed to grow together with our suppliers by carefully managing the risks and opportunities of our supply chain and considering sustainability at every stage of selecting, operating, and evaluating suppliers. We adopt a risk-based supply chain management practice to ensure that our supply chain is sustainable and resilient. We believe our competitive advantage can be improved by our supplier capabilities. We help all suppliers to abide by our Supplier Code of Conduct and related guidelines, and to manage their work environment risks related to human rights, EHS and ethics in compliance with local regulations and global standards. Our supply chain is committed to our Supplier Code of Conduct and comply with applicable laws and regulations. The Supplier code of conduct is based on the UN Global Compact Framework and RBA; and it is to mitigate any social, economic and environmental risks by setting the standards for our suppliers to conduct their business.

We use McKinsey & Company supply chain risk management framework as the reference an early warning system for our sustainability risks management. Supply risks occur when the raw materials our business relies on aren't delivered on time or at all, thereby causing disruption to the flow of product, material, and/or parts.

We assess and evaluate the potential risks in each region includes the criteria "human rights," "corruption" and "legal environment" as well as risk value chains; and identified the heightened levels of sustainability risks. This helps us to identify suppliers and purchasing markets that may require special precautions; especially those relates to "Conflict Minerals". Conflict-free supply chains are an integral part of our Responsible Sourcing Policy. We require our suppliers to provide documentary evidence that all the materials they source are conflict-free.

12.8 SUPPLIER MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

Segmentation of supply base by “spend” and “risk.” The spend factor entails more concentration on critical suppliers to your business process and on whom you are willing to spend time and resources. The risk factor entails the degree of exposure your business has to performance failures from suppliers—for example, late deliveries, service failures, warranty problems, quality defects, and more.

12.9 PROCUREMENT POLICIES AND PROCESSES

Frontken Group has adopted the ISO system of approved vendor list and supplier selection to ensure that our suppliers deliver products and services that meet our specification and requirements. The scope of qualification includes suppliers’ capabilities based on our criteria identified in the supplier qualification form including economic, environmental, and social issues consistent with the Supplier Supply Chain Sustainability Guidelines. All the suppliers who are qualified and approved via the supplier qualification process will be registered on our Approved Vendor List (AVL) in our procurement system. All approved suppliers are required to sign the acknowledgement form of Supplier Supply Chain Sustainability Guidelines and Code of Conduct to ensure compliance with the agreements and requirements.

If a supplier fails to uphold any aspect of the requirements of the Supplier Supply Chain Sustainability Guidelines, the supplier is expected to implement corrective actions. Frontken Group reserves the right to terminate an agreement with any supplier that cannot demonstrate that they are upholding the requirements of these Supplier Supply Chain Sustainability Guidelines.

Frontken Group will conduct regular surveys of suppliers to monitor the status of their compliance with basic policies and to strengthen communication with suppliers. Frontken Group will visit suppliers to confirm the status of their activities when it determines that site audit visits are necessary based on the regions where suppliers are active and their business activities.

Frontken Group will request that the supplier to do corrective actions if there is any non-compliance; and will provide guidance and assistance to the supplier as necessary. If the non-compliance supplier is unlikely to implement corrective measures even after providing continuous guidance and assistance, Frontken Group will review its business relationship with the relevant supplier. For example, if any of our supplier has failed to meet the labour laws relating to compliance of laws; or respect for human rights; or workplace safety and health; we will ask the supplier to establish the factual situation, and prepare a report on the non-compliance and corrective actions and improvement measures. If corrective actions and improvement measures are insufficient, we will request that further measures to be taken; otherwise, we will review our relationship with the supplier.

5.0 Procedures (Continue)

The following terms describe courses of action that we will take in response to supplier non-compliance:

- Engage: The buyer works with the retained or suspended supplier to help resolve the non-compliance(s).

12.11 SUPPLIERS OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

Suppliers will integrate the following health and safety management requirements into business processes to provide workers with a healthy and safe work environment:

- Occupational Safety and Health.

Suppliers will comply with all applicable safety and health laws and regulations, and identify, evaluate and control worker exposure to safety and health hazards, including chemical, biological, physical and ergonomic stressors, through proper design, engineering controls, maintenance, safe work procedures and ongoing health and safety guidance. Where these means cannot adequately control hazards, suppliers will protect workers with appropriate personal protective equipment and provide them with information about risks to them from these hazards. Suppliers will implement procedures to prevent, manage, track and report occupational injury and illness, including encouraging worker reporting, classifying and recording cases, providing medical treatment, investigating cases, implementing corrective actions and facilitating workers' return to work.

- Emergency Preparedness.

Suppliers will identify and plan for potential emergencies, and will implement emergency plans and provide guidance to workers on emergency response procedures, including emergency reporting, worker notification and evacuation, drills, fire detection and suppression equipment, exit facilities and recovery plans.

12.15 NO CONFLICT MINERALS POLICY

Conflict minerals refer to tantalum, tungsten, tin, and gold originated in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and its adjoining countries (“Covered Countries”). There are concerns that the conflict minerals fund armed forces of the Covered Countries causing many deaths of their own people and infringement of human rights in the course of mineral excavation such as forced labour and abuse of women and children. In response to these concerns, the United States Congress enacted the Dodd–Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the “Dodd-Frank Act”). Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Act (“Conflict Minerals Rule”) requires manufacturing companies listed in U.S. stock exchange to disclose whether the products they manufacture or contract to manufacture contain conflict minerals.

We are working towards ensuring that our products and services do not contain any Conflict Minerals that have been sourced from mines that support or fund conflict within the Democratic Republic of Congo or adjoining countries.

We are committed to the following policy and we expect our supply chain to follow our commitment:

- a) Identifying which the products that are impacted and work with our suppliers to determine the sources of any conflict minerals that are contained in our products.
- b) Conducting due diligence with suppliers to ensure Responsible Supply Chains to eliminate any sourcing and procurement of Minerals from Conflict Affected and High-Risk Areas.
- c) Partnering with our suppliers to work towards ensuring that any Conflict Minerals contained in the products and materials supplied to us originate from Conflict Free Sources.
- d) Partnering with our suppliers to provide due diligence information that will ensure responsible sourcing decisions and supply chain transparency;
- e) Contributing to conflict-free trade by encouraging our suppliers not to discriminate against legitimate sources of Conflict Minerals.

ABOUT THIS REPORT

This report is about the Frontken Group sustainability development strategies, initiatives and performance in relation to environmental, people, social and governance issues. This is the sustainability development which covers the sustainability performance of Frontken group within the Semiconductor Business. All data, statistics, improvement and targets are in relation to our operations. All levels of employees are expected to support and take responsibility for the implementation of this Sustainability Development in accordance with their roles in the organization. We welcome the input of interested stakeholders to our Sustainability development, environmental, health and safety programs. Frontken Group has developed this Sustainability Development Website to provide an overview of the company's products, services, and operations relating to environmental, social, governance and economic performance. This document is up to date for calendar year 2021.

INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK: Our report is benchmarked and aligned with a combination of international Framework including (a) the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) framework; (b) Responsible Business Alliance (RBA); (c) Bursa Malaysia FTSE Russell ESG Model Framework, which provides a globally relevant standard for reporting environmental, social, and economic performance. We have included a GRI Index, RBA Index, and FTSE Russell ESG Index at the end of the report to show our benchmarking and alignment with all the international framework reporting elements and to document our progress at integrating sustainability into our business. We used the GRI materiality assessment process to determine the content of the report and identify key issues and topics. The content for our sustainability development was developed based on materiality assessment that identified risks and opportunities relevant to our company.

In this materiality assessment to identify key sustainability topics, the Group worked with stakeholders to review the material corporate responsibility issues that were of the greatest importance to all stakeholders. To prioritize key issues, we met with employees across our functional groups to understand their concerns as well as those of our external stakeholders, including customers, shareholders, suppliers, policymakers, and communities. To collect this information, we leveraged the use of meetings, operational and technical reviews. Based on these feedbacks, more than 30 material topics were identified, from which a list of 15 priority topics emerged. We continue to use this process to inform our approach to CSR and the direct actions that we take.

BOUNDARIES: The data reported in this document are for Frontken Group. This report only covers Frontken Semiconductor related business in Singapore, Malaysia and Taiwan (Unless otherwise specified, for example, 'in all 100% coverage of Frontken Group' indicates that the data covers the entire group).

We are fully committed to listening to our stakeholders and we welcome feedback on this report and any aspect of our sustainability performance.
