1.0 Purpose

This Group Communications Framework (“Framework”) provides a structured approach to managing communications by Tune Protect Group Berhad, including its subsidiaries, associates, and joint-venture entities (collectively referred to as “the Company”). It serves as a guiding principle for the disclosure and dissemination of information about the Company to the public, media, customers, authorities, investors, the financial community, and other stakeholders.

It also establishes guiding principles and responsibilities for employees regarding their use of digital media, particularly when such activities are related to their work with Tune Protect.

The purpose of this Framework is to ensure a consistent, transparent, and responsible approach to all communications, in alignment with the Company’s mission, values, and business objectives. It also supports compliance with legal and regulatory requirements while safeguarding the Company’s reputation and integrity across all communication platforms.

2.0 Scope

This Framework applies to all employees of Tune Protect Group, including its subsidiaries, associates, and joint ventures, in relation to any form of information, whether general, confidential, or material, concerning the Company that is communicated, shared, or disclosed internally or externally.

Associate and joint venture companies within the Group may adopt this Framework where applicable and relevant to their operations.

As reputation custodians, all employees are expected to uphold the highest standards of communication, representing not only themselves but also the Company and its stakeholders with integrity and professionalism.

This Framework should be read together with the Group Communications Procedures, which outline the detailed processes and operational guidelines to support its implementation.

5.0 Communications Framework

5.1 Media relations and designated spokespersons

Our relations with the media and good relationships with journalists are the key to our success. They are a gate opener in order to communicate with the media, customers and the public as they determine how we are perceived externally by our external audience.

5.1.1 Media Relations

All media relations activities are coordinated by the Communications Unit. Unless otherwise authorised by the Group CEO, media relations activities and media interviews are restricted to the Group CEO as the official spokesperson for the Company. In specific circumstances, the following exceptions are made:

- in addition to the Group CEO, the Group CFO is also the alternate respondent to all media enquiries and interviews in respect of financial reporting and securities;
- the CEOs and Principal Officer of the respective subsidiaries, associate and joint venture entities (Tune Protect Malaysia, Tune Protect Re, Tune Protect Ventures, White Label, Tune Protect Thailand, Tune Protect EMEA) are the official spokespersons to address media enquiries and interviews in relation to their respective businesses;
- from time-to-time, other personnel such as the subject-matter experts (Head of department level and above) may be called upon to speak to the media regarding specific areas of responsibility or subject matter. These opportunities will be arranged in advance in consultation with the Communications Unit.

Unless in conflict with the business requirements of the Company, media deadlines are to be respected where possible.

Tune Protect employees who are not authorised as spokespersons of the Company shall not respond on behalf of the Company to any enquiry from, or initiate communications with the media. All media enquiries must be referred to the Communications Unit as soon as possible for immediate response.

5.1.2 Engagement of a Public Relations (PR) Agency

The Company may decide to engage the services of a PR Agency either on an adhoc or a retainer basis to manage relationships with the media. The engagement of the PR Agency will align with the Group's procurement policy based on merit and value that shall best meet the Company's requirements.

The Communications Unit will be the main liaison on behalf of the Company to work with and monitor the performance of the PR Agency in rendering the specified and agreed deliverables within the stipulated timelines.

5.2 Roles and Responsibilities of the Designated Spokesperson

It is essential that the spokespersons are individuals with the best expertise and overview of relevant topics. Only designated spokespersons (specified in paragraph 5.1.1) are permitted to issue statements on behalf of the Company, guided by the Communications Unit and/or Investor Relations Unit.

We endeavor to leverage digital in distribution of these communication materials whenever possible, to conserve the environment by being more efficient and paperless.

5.3 Public Comments at Industry Conferences and Award Ceremonies

Tune Protect employees are not allowed to make public comments on behalf of the Company, verbal or written, without being officially authorised to do so.

Any Tune Protect personnel who are invited to make speeches or presentations about the Company to industry groups, conferences, public meetings, award ceremonies as part of their normal areas of responsibility, should obtain approval from the Group CEO before accepting such invitations. The Communications Unit is the intermediary that will undertake the review and determine the relevance of such invitations and seek the approval of the Group CEO. All presentation contents and materials must be appropriate and be guided by paragraph 5.5. If in doubt, please refer to the Communications Unit.

Should such an opportunity be accepted, the roles and responsibilities of the designated spokesperson in paragraph 5.2 shall apply.

5.4 Public Statements of Personal Opinion

Tune Protect employees should refrain from making public statements or presenting any personal opinion regarding the Company.

5.4.1 Duty of loyalty

Common law imposes on all employees, the fiduciary duties of confidentiality and loyalty to one's employer, obligating employees not to compete with their employer, and prohibiting them from disclosing or using their employer's confidential material information to the employer's detriment.

In the broadest sense, the Company extends this responsibility to each, and every person employed by the Company, and requires all employees to act with good faith, honesty, and loyalty, and to avoid placing their own personal interests above those of the Company. For more information, please refer to the Company's Code of Conduct.

5.5 Release of Information

5.5.1 Material Information Disclosure

Disclosure of material information shall be made in line with the MMLR, Chapter 9: Continuing Disclosure. For more information on the principles of disclosure, please refer to the Corporate Disclosure Governance section on paragraph 6.0.

5.5.2 Unintentional Selective Disclosure

If confidential material information is inadvertently disclosed to an individual not bound by a confidentiality obligation and subsequently becomes public, the incident must be reported immediately to the Risk & Compliance Department for guidance on the appropriate course of action.

5.5.3 Press Releases

Press releases are one of the communication materials that may be used to disseminate material and non-material information about the Company. Under certain circumstances, selected material information that is posted on Bursa Malaysia's website will be accompanied by the distribution of a press release to the media, in addition to being posted on the Company's website. The decision on distributing a press release for material and non-material information will be at the discretion of the Group CEO. In addition, it may also be released on social media if the Communications Unit considers this useful and beneficial to the Company.

The Communications Unit is responsible for the appropriate dissemination of information to the media. We endeavor to leverage digital in distribution of these communication materials whenever possible, to be more efficient and paperless.

5.5.4 Routine Information Requests

Enquiries from the public for general and routine information can be addressed by the Investor Relations and/or Communications Units if the information requested is contained in records or publications previously released for public distribution.

Any enquiries that are confidential shall not be addressed by any employees that are not authorised to do so. If such an enquiry is made, the employee will respectfully decline and direct the requestor to the Investor Relations and/or Communications Units.

5.5.5 Responding to Rumours

In general, no comment will be made in response to rumours or speculation regarding the Company and its activities. However, certain exceptions may be made with prior discussion and under the discretion of the Group CEO.

5.6 Electronic and Digital Communications

Electronic and digital communication channels are the preferred communication approach for the Company to be more efficient and paperless. However, proper precautions should be taken when using electronic and digital communications, including emails, the internet, website, internal communication tools (Viva Engage, MS Teams), social media applications such as Facebook, X, Instagram, LinkedIn, WhatsApp, Telegram, (non-exhaustive list) to disseminate confidential information.

Employees are responsible for information shared via their electronic and digital communication tools and are never allowed to share confidential material information with external parties on these platforms. We do not restrict employees from sharing any information that has been made available publicly at their discretion.

5.6.1 Tune Protect Website – Corporate Section

The Communications Unit is the overall custodian of the contents on the Tune Protect website – Corporate section and responsible for monitoring and updating the website with the latest development about the Company. Any updates to the corporate website will need to be directed to the Communications Unit as the central gatekeeper of information contained on the website, with the exception of the Investor Relations sub-section of the website.

The Investor Relations Unit is responsible for monitoring confidential financial and material information and for updating the Investor Relations section of the website (<https://www.tuneprotect.com/corporate/group/investor-relations/>). Please refer to the Group Investor Relations Policy, paragraph 6 (vii) for more information.

Any links from the Company's corporate website to a third-party website should, if appropriate, include a notice that advises the reader that he or she is leaving the Company's website and that the Company is not responsible for the contents of the other site.

5.6.2 Internet Discussion Forums, Chat Rooms, Social Media, Bulletin Boards

Due to the immediacy of electronic information, Tune Protect personnel are discouraged from participating in discussions about the Company and its activities on internet discussion forums, chat rooms, social media (e.g. Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Google+, X, etc.) or virtual bulletin boards. Tune Protect personnel are prohibited at any time, from discussing confidential material information.

Posting on official Tune Protect social media platforms by Tune Protect personnel is restricted to authorised spokespersons, and the personnel of the Branding and Marketing Department and Communications Unit only. The content of such postings must adhere to guidelines set from time to time by the Branding and Marketing Department and Communications Unit.

5.7 General Dealings with the Public

The Company will provide only non-material information through individual and group meetings, in addition to previously disclosed information. Upon request, the Company will provide the same sort of detailed, non-material information to individual investors or the media that it has provided to analysts and institutional investors.

Where practical, spokespersons will keep notes of telephone conversations with media representatives and investors, and more than one Company representative will be present at all individual and group meetings. Spokespersons shall be guided by the Group CEO, Investor Relations and/or Communications Units if questions arise concerning selective disclosure of previously confidential information.

5.8 Managing Reputational Risk

Safeguarding the Company's reputation is crucial to ensure that the organisation's trustworthiness is maintained in the marketplace, be it in the eyes of customers, business partners, regulators, investors, and the public in general. Reputational risk refers to the potential for negative publicity, public perception or uncontrollable events that may cause an adverse impact on a company's reputation. Negative publicity or public perception may present itself in the form of media coverage in the print, digital or online media, and videos or postings that may have gone viral in the social media space (non-exhaustive list).

5.8.1 Roles of Employees

All Tune Protect employees can play a role in managing the Company's reputational risk. The roles of employees include, among others:

- Immediately escalate any negative publicity about the Company that may appear in the print, digital or online media, including social media. State the source and provide the links to the negative publicity where the Company is mentioned to the Communications Unit.
- Do not share the negative publicity further with any external parties to contain the virality of the news, videos, or postings.
- Forward all enquiries pertaining to the negative publicity from any external parties, e.g., customers, media, business partners, etc. to the Communications Unit for the enquiries to be addressed. Do not attempt to address the enquiries without first consulting the Communications Unit.

5.8.2 Crisis Communications

Should an issue of negative publicity escalate further into a crisis, the Group CEO has the final decision to activate the crisis communications plan. Prior to activating the crisis communications plan, the Group CEO will provide an update to the Group's Board of Directors on the crisis and about the plan that will be undertaken. For significant crises, it is essential to notify the Board of Directors promptly, with the level of urgency determined by the scale and impact of the situation.

A Crisis Communications Team will be tasked to discuss, plan, and execute the appropriate action items to contain the crisis and address the negative publicity. The team shall comprise of key representatives from the following business units/functions or its equivalent (where applicable):

- i. Group CEO
- ii. Local Entity CEO
- iii. Group/Local Risk & Compliance
- iv. Group / Local Communications
- v. Investor Relations

- vi. Group/Local Technology
- vii. Group/Local Operations
- viii. Group/Local Customer Experience
- ix. Group / Local Branding/ Marketing
- x. Group/Local People & Culture

During this period, all Tune Protect employees are prohibited from addressing any enquiries from external parties or discuss the matter in hand on any social media or virtual discussion forums or chat rooms. Please direct any enquiries to the Communications Unit. Please refer to the Group Communications Procedures for more information.

6.0 Corporate Disclosure Governance

Corporate Disclosure Governance (“CDG”) is an integral part of the Group Communications Framework. It entails the commitment of TPG in ensuring that the disclosure of material information shall comply with the legal and regulatory requirements, and the disclosure is such that the investing public will be able to have a balanced and unbiased view of the facts disclosed.

6.1 Objectives

- i. To provide ample and appropriate access to accurate, clear and full disclosure of all material information in relation to Tune Protect in an orderly and timely manner, so as to keep shareholders and the investing public informed about its operations and financial performance.
- ii. Avoid insider dealing.

- iv. Create awareness and provide guidance to management and employees on Tune Protect’s disclosure requirements and practices.
- v. Provide accepted methodology in disseminating material information to investors, analysts, media, the investing public and other interested parties; and
- vi. Comply with legal and regulatory requirements regarding disclosure of material information.

6.1.1 Applicability

This section is applicable to the conduct of directors, officers, managers, spokespersons and other employees of Tune Protect, including its appointed advisors and consultants.

6.2 Methods of Communications

TPG communicates with the regulators, media and the investing public via:

- i. Written statements made in TPG’s annual reports, sustainability statement/report, quarterly reports, press releases, e-mail communication and website or social media; and
- ii. Oral statements made in group and individual meetings, telephone conversations, interviews and press conferences with financial analysts, investors, and media.

6.3 Implementation

The Group CEO is responsible for implementing the corporate disclosure requirements, guided by the CDWG.

6.4 Corporate Disclosure Working Group (“CDWG”)

- i. The CDWG is to oversee matters relating to TPG's corporate disclosure practices ensuring adherence to this CDG, save and except for routine corporate disclosure including but not limited to the change of corporate information, change of shareholdings, annual reports, dealings in listed securities and others whereby the Company Secretary will be authorised to do the necessary required actions.
- ii. The functions and responsibilities of the CDWG include:-
 - Maintain an awareness and understanding of the disclosure requirements;
 - Determine whether corporate developments constitute material information and if so, ensuring this CDG and Procedure are fully complied with;
 - Implement this CDG and Procedure;
 - Monitor compliance with this CDG and Procedure and undertake reviews of any violations, including assessment and implementation of appropriate consequences and remedial actions;
 - Review and update this CDG and Procedure from time to time to ensure compliance with the MMLR.

 The Group CEO may assign or re-assign suitable personnel in the composition*
- iv. Quorum
 - The quorum for the meeting of CDWG shall be fixed at three (3) members from the Composition above.

6.5 Corporate Disclosure Designated Person

- i. The Board has designated the Group CEO as the CDDP. In his/her absence, a member of the CDWG will take on this role.
- ii. The functions and responsibilities of the CDDP include:
 - Review information to be disseminated to ensure compliance with the MMLR and applicable laws (if any), and ensure that the relevant persons such as the Board or Group CEO or Group CFO rectify such information and relevant approval/ authorisation is obtained prior to disclosures;
 - Ensure that TPG complies with the continuing disclosure requirements in a timely manner;
 - Maintain accurate records of all disclosures of material information by the Tune Protect to the investing public;
 - Ensure that the TPG's website pertaining to material information is properly reviewed and updated;

- Create awareness amongst the directors and employees on this CDG and Procedure;
- Brief designated spokespersons on what has previously been disclosed prior to an analyst or media briefing; and
- Update with any pending material development concerning TPG.

6.6 Designated Spokesperson(s)

The designated spokesperson for TPG is the Group CEO and/or his/her authorised spokesperson(s):

- i. The designated or authorised spokesperson(s) shall not disclose material information that has not been previously made public.
- ii. Employees other than the designated or authorised spokesperson(s) shall not respond to inquiries from the investment community or media and all queries should be directed to the designated or authorised spokesperson(s).
- iii. The Head of Investor Relations and/or Head of Communications will be involved in scheduling and developing communications materials and presentations for all meetings with the investing public, analyst and media.
- iv. An employee should contact the CDDP if there is any doubt about the appropriateness of supplying information to an outside party.

6.7 Material Information for disclosure to Bursa Malaysia

Information is deemed “material” for disclosure to Bursa Malaysia if:

- i. It concerns any transaction or litigation, the quantum of which exceeds 5% of TPG’s latest audited net assets; or
- ii. Such transaction or litigation is reasonably expected to have material effect on:
 - The price, value or market activity of TPG’s shares; and
 - The decision of a shareholder or an investor in determining his/her choice of action.

Material information may include information which:

- i. Concerns TPG and its subsidiaries’ assets and liabilities, business, financial condition or prospect;
- ii. Relates to dealings with employees, suppliers, customers and other stakeholders;
- iii. Relates to any event affecting the present or potential dilution of the rights or interests of TPG’s shares; or
- iv. Relates to any material event affecting the size of the public holding of TPG’s shares.

Bursa Malaysia requires immediate disclosure of all material information. Examples of events requiring immediate disclosure are set out in Appendix A.

6.8 Responsibilities and Procedures for Disclosure of Material Information

- i. The CDWG will manage TPG’s releases of announcements to Bursa Malaysia through the Company Secretary, save and except for routine announcements including but not limited to the change of corporate information, change of shareholdings, annual reports, dealings in listed securities and others. All directors shall approve or be kept informed of all announcements prior to the submission to Bursa Malaysia.

- ii. The CDWG shall be responsible for drafting the announcement with the assistance of the Company Secretary to ensure compliance with the MMLR and accuracy of the contents therein.
- iii. The Finance Department has the duty to review and verify the accuracy of all financial data contained in such announcement.
- iv. For those announcements which are to be released to the media, they will be released through the Communications Unit. The CDWG has the responsibility to verify and ensure that the content clearly and effectively communicates the intended substance and meaning of the information to the public.
- v. Once the announcement has been released to Bursa Malaysia, it will then be made available and accessible on TPG's website by the Investor Relations Unit in the Investor Relations section of the corporate website.
- vi. After public dissemination, the news release will be monitored by the Communications Unit and Investor Relations Unit to ensure accurate media reporting and will take any corrective measures, if necessary. The Company will file a material change report with Bursa Malaysia (if required).

6.9 Withholding of Material Information

- i. TPG will only withhold information consistent with those as outlined in the MMLR which include:
 - When such disclosure would prejudice the ability of TPG to pursue its corporate objectives;
 - When the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent; or
 - Where the laws prohibit the disclosure of such information.
- ii. Whenever material information is being temporarily withheld, TPG must ensure that the strictest confidentiality is maintained, including limiting the number of persons having access to the material information and ensuring security of all confidential documents.
- iii. The following precautions will be observed to keep the information completely confidential:
 - Access to the information will be on a need-to-know basis;
 - If and when the information is disclosed in the necessary course of business, recipients of such information will be made aware of the need to keep the information confidential inside and outside TPG;
 - Confidentiality Agreements will be used to ensure protection of the confidentiality by third parties such as advisors, lawyers, consultants, business associates/partners and others;
 - Reasonable care will be taken to ensure appropriate security and protection of the information such as sensitive/confidential documents shall be kept in a safe place; and
 - Transmission of documents by electronic means shall be made only where it can be made and received under secure conditions;

These responsibilities and procedures are applicable during the period of time when news releases involving material information are being developed, until the information has been released and disseminated to the investing public.

6.10 Responding to Market Rumours

- i. TPG may opt not to comment on market rumours or speculation, particularly where it is clear that it is not the source of the market rumours. If Bursa Malaysia requests TPG to make a statement in response to a market rumour, the CDDP has the authority to consider the matter and make the recommendation as to the nature and content of the response.
- ii. The CDDP will also recommend an appropriate course of action where TPG or an employee of TPG and its subsidiaries is the apparent source of the rumour.

6.11 Communications with Analysts, Media and Investing Public

- i. Head of Investor Relations will be responsible for preparing the designated spokespersons for briefing sessions with analysts and investing public on information about TPG.
- ii. Presentation materials from such meetings will be made available on TPG's website as soon as possible after the presentation is made.
- iii. TPG will not provide confidential, proprietary or material non-public information during such briefings. Any information disclosed will be factual and not speculative.
- iv. If material non-public information is inadvertently disclosed at such a briefing, TPG will take immediate action to ensure public dissemination of such information.
- v. TPG does not discriminate among recipients of information. Under no circumstances will TPG confirm or attempt to influence an analyst's opinions or conclusions, speculate about future business plans or provide specific "bottom-line" financial expectations. TPG will provide the same information to both analysts and individual investors when requested.
- vi. Tune Protect Group will not comment on opinions made by analysts except where there is a factual error.
- vii. A record of all briefings will be kept by the Investor Relations Unit.
- viii. 14 calendar days before the targeted date of earnings release, the designated or authorised spokespersons will not hold private meetings with analysts. During this period, communications with the media are limited to responding or commenting on publicly available or non-material information only.
- ix. In the event that any material information is required to be disclosed during the closed period (14 days before the targeted date of earnings release), the Group CEO will recommend the proposition to the Board of Directors for approval via email or any other written means of communications necessary.

6.12 Forward-looking Information

- i. TPG will not provide forecasts, guidance or warnings of future earnings or other financial results. TPG may provide sufficient forward-looking information to the investing public to enable reasonable evaluations of its future performance prospects provided that it is not undisclosed material information, it does not deal with future earnings, and it has been prepared or reviewed by the CDWG.
- ii. Such information could include forecasts in respect of volumes, expenses, capital expenditures, new projects, fiscal terms and market, commercial and technical considerations and will be consistent with and complementary to information that has been otherwise provided via timely disclosure documents such as annual reports, sustainability statement/report, news releases and quarterly reports.

- iii. Documents containing forward-looking information will be accompanied by a disclaimer cautioning the reader that there are risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from what is indicated in the documents. When making oral forward-looking statements, reasonable care will be taken to also include appropriate reference to such risks and uncertainties in the discussion.

6.13 TPG's Website

- i. TPG's website contains an "Investor Relations" section. All disclosure and material information documents of interest to investors will be made available and accessible by the public on the website as soon as after their release through the announcements to Bursa Malaysia. These include announcements, annual reports, sustainability statement/report quarterly reports, news releases and information on TPG. Other supplemental and non-material information will be posted on the website as soon as practicable after they are available.
- ii. The website should also contain among others, the constitution, Board charter, terms of reference, policy and Board composition.
- iii. Disclosures pursuant to BNM Corporate Governance Policy as stated in Paragraph 6.15 below should also be published on the website.
- iv. The Head of Investor Relations together with the CDWG are responsible for ensuring that the information contained in the "Investor Relations" section of the website is accurate, updated and in compliance with the MMLR.

6.14 Restrictions on Insider Trading

- i. Capital Market Services Act 2007 provides that an insider with access to material information are prohibited from trading in TPG's shares until the information has been fully disclosed and a reasonable period of time has passed for the information to be disseminated to the public.
- ii. From time to time, the Company Secretary shall advise the directors, principal officers and employees who have access to financials on the trading restrictions in TPG's shares in accordance with the provisions of the MMLR.

6.15 BNM Corporate Governance Disclosures

Section A: BNM Corporate Governance Policy

- i. Details set out in this part refers to disclosure requirements as per BNM Corporate Governance Policy, which requires specific disclosures to be:
 - Laid before TPM's Annual General Meeting, as an appendix to the Directors' Report;
 - Published on TPG's website; and
 - Published in TPG's annual report
- ii. For the purpose of (i) above, TPM must disclose information on its corporate governance policies and practices, which should include:
 - Information as set out in Appendix 4 of BNM Corporate Governance Policy (Issued 3rd

August 2016)
