Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board assumes responsibility of the Company's leadership and directs as well as supervise the management of the business units and affairs of the Company and the subsidiaries ("the Group"). The Group has in place policies for strengthening the performance of the Company including ensuring that Management is proactively seeking to build the business through innovation, initiative, technology, new products and the development of its business capital. The Board monitors the performance of Management through the quarterly operational report and decides on whatever steps are necessary to protect the Company's financial position and the ability to meet its debts and other obligations when they fall due, and ensuring that such steps are taken. In the normal course of events, day to day management of the Company will be in the hands of Management and under the stewardship of the Group Managing Director (GMD). The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to the Audit Committee and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. These Committees have the authority to examine particular issues and report back to the Board with their recommendation. The ultimate responsibility for the final decision on all matters, however, lies with the entire Board.

Intended Outcome

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.1

The board together with management takes responsibility for the governance of sustainability in the company including setting the company's sustainability strategies, priorities and targets.

The board takes into account sustainability considerations when exercising its duties including among others the development and implementation of company strategies, business plans, major plans of action and risk management.

Strategic management of material sustainability matters should be driven by senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The responsibility of governance of sustainability in the Group is overseen by the Board and the Sustainability Committee comprising members from each operational function and chaired by an Executive Director. The Sustainability Committee is tasked with integrating sustainability considerations in the day-to-day operations of the company and ensuring the effective implementation of the Group’s sustainability strategies and plans. The Group has developed its sustainability strategy across the top management till every operational level from the economic, environmental and social perspectives.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (NRC) undertakes an annual evaluation of the composition of the Board and in the 2022 review, the Committee viewed that the existing Board members brings to the MHB Group a diverse wealth of skills, knowledge as well as a balanced mix of experience and expertise to effectively discharge the Board's responsibilities for competent stewardship of the Group. The Board was last refreshed in 2022 with the appointment of Mr Bibhuti Nath Jha as Executive Director on 21 December 2022 as filled vacancy with the retirement of Mr Foo Chek Lee from executive position in 1 January 2022. In 2022, the NRC also reviewed the performance and contributions of the directors retiring by rotation. i.e. Mr Tan Eng Piow and Tan Sri Dato' Seri Mohamad Noor Bin Abdul Rahim ("Retiring Directors"). The Retiring Directors were assessed on their performance and understanding of the Group's business. Their active participation at the Board meetings showed that there were prepared and were effective in the discharge of their responsibilities. In appointing or reappointing a board member, the Board considers the current composition of the Board and the tenure of each director on the Board. The Board takes cognisance of the new provisions of the Listing Requirements on the limit of tenure of 12 years for independent directors. The Board annually review its composition and evaluate the need to bring new skills and perspective to the boardroom.

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company is not a Large Company. There are eight (8) Board of Director of the Company, out of which four (4) are Independent Non-Executive Directors, making 50% of the composition of the Board. The Board is expected to be active and responsible fiduciaries in the exercise of their oversight responsibilities and therefore it is essential for the Company to be able to rely on the independent judgement of the Board, to be objective and to be able to evaluate the performance of the Company without any conflict of interest or undue influence from interested parties. It is for this reason that for the past 10 years, the Company has had a majority of Independent Directors on the Board and the Chairman is also an Independent Director.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Independent Non-Executive Directors participate at the Board Meetings and also contribute in Board Committees that have been set up as part of the practice of good corporate governance within the Company. They provide an objective and independent view of the performance of management in attempting to achieve the results to which the strategy of the Company is directed. The Board has upon their assessment, concluded that each of the four (4) Independent Non-Executive Directors continues to demonstrate conduct and behavior that are essential indicators of independence and find that their length of service does not in any way interfere with their exercise of independent judgement and ability to act in the interest of the Company. The Board not only considered the state of mind of the long-serving Independent Directors but also focused on their background, current professional activities, economic and family relationships. The assessment also took into account that they have performed their duties without being subject to the influence of Management. The quantitative aspects of independence were dealt with under the Listing Requirements and for the qualitative aspects, the Board took into consideration various factors including character, values, and skills of the individual director. The Board had in 2022 assessed the independence of these directors and viewed that there was no need to limit their tenure. Notwithstanding, the retention of the long serving independent directors are tabled for the shareholders' approval through a single-tier voting process. The justifications for the proposal to retain them are provided in the notes to the AGM notice.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC annually review the composition of the continuing members of the Board and Board committee and make recommendation(s) to the Board for any new appointment to the Board or Board committees when necessary. The Committee viewed that the composition of the Board brings to the Group a diverse wealth of skills, knowledge as well as a balanced mix of experience and expertise to effectively discharge the Board's responsibilities for competent stewardship of the Group. The Committee also took note that the recommendation of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance on the establishment of a policy formalising its approach to boardroom diversity. With the appointment of the women directors, Ms Cho Wai Ling and Ms Tan Mei Yin to the Board, the Company has taken into account the diversity. In November 2021, the Board formalised a gender diversity policy in the Board Charter as follows: 3.7.1 The Board shall endeavour to maintain at least one (1) woman director. In seeking potential candidate(s) for new appointments, the Board takes into account ethnicity and age distribution of the Directors to maintain a balanced Board composition.The Board shall also review the participation of women in senior management to ensure there is a healthy talent pipeline.3.7.2 The Board in undertaking the process of reviewing and selecting potential candidates to fill in the vacancies on the Board shall be mindful of various diversity factors to strengthen the Board composition that meets the objectives and strategic goals of the Group.

	Based on the current matrix of skills, the Committee viewed that the Board has the right mix of skills and experience to ensure it is effective and can optimise performance and strategy of the Company.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Selection of candidates for appointment of new Directors may be recommended by Directors, Management and shareholders. The Board is also open and may seek external independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.  The NRC propose new nominees for appointment to the Board. In making the recommendations, the NRC shall consider the candidates skills, knowledge, expertise and experience.  For 2022, there was one nomination received for the NRC's consideration.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	In the financial year, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee completed the matrix of skills of each Director based on their core competencies and found that the Executive Directors have the adequate knowledge, skills and commercial experience in running and leading the construction and property development operations whilst the Independent Directors with their knowledge, skills and experience from both related and other business fields are able to provide the necessary oversight duties and the development of the company's strategy. The Committee viewed that the Board with their different background and specialisation, collectively bring with them a wide range of experience and expertise in areas such as engineering, finance, general management, economics, marketing, safety &amp; health, public relations and operations. On the assessment on the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the Committee viewed that the Board has overall achieved high level of compliances in the areas of Board Functions, Board Meetings, induction, development, succession and dismissal, board structure and communication. The Committee viewed that all the Directors have good personal attributes and possessed sufficient experience and knowledge in various fields that are vital to the Company's industry and have discharged their stewardship duties and responsibility satisfactorily. At the present moment, the Board view that the cost for the engagement at independent experts would not benefit the Company as an operating entity.

Companies make informed decisions about the level of risk they want to take and implement necessary controls to pursue their objectives.

The board is provided with reasonable assurance that adverse impact arising from a foreseeable future event or situation on the company's objectives is mitigated and managed.

Practice 10.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board acknowledges its overall responsibility for the Group's system of internal controls, which includes the establishment of an appropriate risk and control framework as well as the review of its effectiveness, adequacy and integrity to safeguard shareholders' investments and the Group's asset. The Group has a risk management framework, which includes a risk management assessment process to identify significant risks and the mitigating measures thereof. The framework also addresses the specific risk profiles of each business division and the key functional unit identifies within the Group. Such system is however, designed to manage, rather than eliminate, the risk of failure to achieve business and corporate objectives. The system can therefore only provide reasonable, but not absolute assurance, against material misstatement or loss. There is an on-going process for identifying, evaluating and managing the significant risks faced by the Group in its achievement of objectives and strategies. The Board annually reviews the results of this process for each business segment on cycle basis, including measures taken by Management to address areas of key risks as this Statement. Further details are set out in the Statement of Risk management and Internal Controls in the Annual Report 2022.
